MYSTERIOUS EXPLOSION DESTROYS BUILDING
JOHNSON TO MAKE THE BATTLE OF HIS LIFE
Has Absolute Confidence That the People of the State Will Elect Him Governor

Him Governor

(By HIRAM JOHNSON,
Republican Nominee for Governor.)

"The first direct primary has demonstrated all that the friends of the measure originally claimed for it. The people themselves have selected their candidate and have responded to the principle that was presented to them in the campaign. The overwhelming victory is a victory for a great cause—the freedom politically of the State of California. In March last, in behalf of this cause, I commenced the campaign by going directly to the people of the State, preaching the doctrine of emancipation politically from Herrin and the Southern Pacific.

Old Politicians Laughed

"At the commencement of the fight old politicians laughed at my methods of talking to the people many months before a primary election and bringing home to the whole electorate an issue in a primary election. Our optimism in the good judgment and the patriotism of the people has been justified. We believed in the commencement that the people of this State were capable of self-government, and believed in self-government, and that when they had the power by virtue of a direct primary they would exercise that power.

"Long years of subservency to the great Southern Pacific machine and its manipulator, William F. Herrin, had made many cynical, and had caused them to view with some contempt the people themselves.

More Work to Be Done

"We believed that the system that had prevailed for so many years in California had prevailed in spite of the people. The result of Tuesday's primary justifies our belief, and every one of us feels a great exultation in the demonstration that has been made in behalf of popular government.

"The first half of our work has been accomplished and Mr. Herrin and the Southern Pacific are eliminated from the Republican party. The last half yet remains to be done; and with the same perseverance and pertinacity, and with the same absolute confidence in the people, we will proceed with the remainder of the work until from the government of California Herrin and the Southern Pacific have been entirely eliminated."

FIRST W. P. TRAIN REACHES SALT LAKE

Residents of City Welcome Arrival of Special With Warm Greetings; Visitors Entertained

By JOSEPH E. BAKER.

SALT LAKE, Utah, Aug. 19.—Salt Lake is shaking hands with Oakland and San Francisco today.

The first passenger train passed into the city over the Western Pacific this afternoon and was greeted with vast enthusiasm by the commercial bodies and business men of the Utah metropolis.

The visitors responded to the warm welcome, shouting by an improvised college yell, celebrating the opening of the new transcontinental line and boosting for the Panama-Pacific Exposition. There were speeches of welcome, speeches of greeting and more yells.

Then the visitors were taken around

Wealthy Girl; Remove Her to Apartments.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—Batting every effort of the police to discover her identity, the pretty young bride of Cleveland Anton Meiswinkel, for hours in the Central Emergency hospital, where she was taken after swallowing the contents of a bottle of lysol yesterday morning.

Mrs. Meiswinkel told several conflicting stories of her motive in attempting self destruction, among others accusing her husband of two months with attempting to force her into white slavery.

OF WEALTHY FAMILIES.

Beyond stating that they both belong to prominent and wealthy Chicago families who bitterly oppose their marriage in that city a short two months ago and that since their arrival here they have both been employed by "San Francisco firms," Meiswinkel was silent.

Mrs. Meiswinkel was visited while in hospital by two male guests of the Fairmont Hotel, but they also were successful in concealing their identity.

DISAPPROVED OF MARRIAGE.

Mrs. Meiswinkel remained in the hospital until 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. When the two mysterious visitors called upon her in the morning she refused to go home. After they left the hospital the wife said:

"Our parents both disapproved of our marriage. They thought it was too young. We were happy at home and enjoyed every luxury. We loved each other too much to part and so we married and came to San Francisco.

"For a month after we got here everything was lovely. I had never worked before in my life, but I went to work in a market street store. My employers were considerate of me, although I was frequently too weak to work. Things began to lose their cheerfulness when Cleveland lost his position. He began to nag me."

SHE HAD "HATED HER."

"Last night he said he hated me. My life without his love would not be worth living. I wished that I could have hated him. It would have saved me from all of this suffering. I still love him and that is the reason I did this."

"Those men who have just been here," she continued, referring to the two mysterious visitors, "knew my family very well. But of them would for the mere asking give me thousands of dollars, but we are too proud to accept their bounty."

INVESTIGATE WHITE SLAVE STORY.

Questions of the Zenobia spoke of the apparent coolness that existed between Mrs. Meiswinkel and her husband. Almost every night the young wife left the apartment house alone, followed generally about twenty minutes later by her husband. The wife would later return to the house alone.

The police investigation was started by Chief Martin because of the declarations made by Mrs. Meiswinkel that an attempt had been made to induce her to lead a life of white slavery. Detective Curtin could learn nothing that would tend to strengthen the first stories told by Mrs. Meiswinkel.

Would Annex Canada

To the United States

Henry Bourassa, the Nationalist Leader, Declares It Remedy for Bad Conditions.

ANTIGONISH, N. S., Aug. 19.—Annexation of Canada to the United States was advocated in an address by Henry Bourassa, M. P., the nationalist leader of Quebec, before the summer school of science of St. Francis Xavier College.

The speaker dwelt at length on the four possible methods of annexation, namely: Remaining in position in which she is at present, which he regarded as very improbable; imperial federation, which would be an unwieldy and unworkable condition; annexation to the United States; and independence.

"Imperial federation means an imperial council with a preponderant British influence," said Mr. Bourassa. "Conditions today in Canada make for annexation rather than for imperial federation. The penetrative influence of trade by rail and canal lines, the mutual propensity of the two peoples living under the same or similar conditions, industrial and social, the constant inter-communication of Canadians and Americans are all powerful factors making for annexation."

MRS. GRACE TRAVERS.

Handsome Wife Declares She Has Been Deserted and Not Provided for by Dentist

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—Mrs. Grace Travers, wife of Harry P. Travers, a well-known dentist, chairman and politician, has brought suit to secure a divorce in the courts of this county on the ground of desertion and failure to provide.

WELL KNOWN HERE.

Mrs. Travers is well known in Oakland, having lived there nearly all her life. She is a very beautiful woman and has a great many friends in this locality. Several years ago she became possessed of the idea that she could perfect herself in the histrionic art, so she went upon the stage. Mrs. Travers was of the opinion that some day she would become a great actress.

SHE APPEARED ON THE BELL THEATER.

Mrs. Travers is a prominent member of the Oakland Elks and takes an active interest in politics. During the recent political contest she was a very strong supporter of Senator Frank Leavitt.

TRAVERS NOT TO CONTEST.

It is understood that Dr. Travers will not contest the suit, as he has not been living with his wife for a long time.

WORKS GIVES MESSAGE

TO PEOPLE OF STATE

Thanks Voters Who Supported Him and Declares He Made Fight on Principle Only

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 19.—John D. Works, the Lincoln-Roosevelt candidate for United States Senator at the recent primaries, today issued a public statement addressed to "The People of the State of California." After saying that he had made his campaign on principle only, thanking the voters of the State who supported him and paying a tribute to Hiram Johnson, Mr. Works' statement says in part:

"I made no plea for myself on the stump. I have not solicited any man's vote for myself, or the support of any newspaper. I have issued no cards or circulars about myself, have not adorned any billboard or fence, or other place, with my picture, and have not advertised myself or my candidacy in any newspaper, magazine or other publication."

SPENT ONLY $1000.

"It has been asserted that a campaign before the people for United States Senator could not be made for less than $50,000. This would bar any man not a millionaire or not supported by the 'interests.' I have, in fact, made my campaign in most of the counties of the state and all for less than $1000, by confining expenditures to legitimate and necessary expenses, thus demonstrating the fact that any American citizen does not have to be a millionaire to run for United States Senator in California. I have had no organization and no paid workers anywhere in the State. I have had the support of the Lincoln-Roosevelt Republican League organization only incidentally and in connection with the general ticket.

"I have tried throughout the campaign to make it impersonal and on principle. I have never expected nor received any financial help of any kind from any source, while one of my competitors is himself a millionaire, and had the powerful support of the political machine backed by the Southern Pacific Railroad Company. I have not contributed to the campaign fund of any candidate for the legislature, or put him under any obligation to me in any way or in any sense."

The convention adjourned until 8 o'clock.

Dread Pestilence.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 19.

---One week's cholera record for Russia shows 23,944 new cases of cholera and 10,723 deaths, bringing the total number of cases in Russia this year to 112,985. Of these 50,287 have died, the mortality percentage being 44.5.

The figures are those furnished by the sanitary bureau, covering the week from August 7th to August 13th inclusive, and are therefore fully official.

Reports from the Red Cross sources indicate that the actual figures are somewhat greater, as it is a practical impossibility to register every case in an epidemic of such proportions.

Of the deaths last week 1678 were reported from the district of the Don Cossack, 1567 from the district of the Kuban Cossacks, 1108, 759 in Samara province, 416 in Urengoi, 411 in the Terek Cossack district, 352 in Kherzon, 334 in the Crimea, where Russians resort for the summer months; 330 in Tambov province and 325 in Stavropol province.

The epidemic in St. Petersburg shows a decrease, only 265 cases and 133 deaths having been reported for the six days ending yesterday at noon, compared to the 567 cases and 233 deaths reported the previous week. The sanitary authorities of the city believe from now on the epidemic will continue its natural decrease.

The total figures for St. Petersburg since the first cases were reported June 20 show 2079 cases and 739 deaths.

The mortality here in the capital, 35 per cent, is much less than in the southern provinces, owing to the better hospital facilities and the experience gained in handling the first big outbreak two years ago.

DO NOT FEAR SPREAD.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—There is not the slightest possibility of the cholera plague spreading to the United States, the quarantine measures now in force here and in Russia being so effective as to preclude any danger of Russian immigrants bringing over the disease.

ITALY SWEEPED BY SCOURGE.

BARI, Italy, Aug. 19.—The epidemic of cholera in Southern Italy is steadily showing an increase in the districts of Apulia, particularly in the town of Tanti, where the number of deaths already is more than thirty.

The latest official reports last night gave twenty deaths at Tanti, showing the rapidity with which the disease is increasing there. The epidemic is of a virulent type and the death rate is high.

Even graver danger is anticipated from the flying population of the infected districts, who may bear the germs of the disease to regions not yet involved. Tanti seems almost deserted as a result of the panic, 20,000 persons, fully half of the population, having fled the town. Fully as many have escaped from the island, town of Barietta.

ROME FREE OF DISEASE.

ROME, Aug. 19.—Rumors that the epidemic of cholera which has broken out in Apulia had spread to Rome are emphatically denied. There have been no cases here and the general health conditions in Rome are excellent—better than at any time in the last ten years.

Although no danger of infection is not felt here, the Pope today ordered the lazaretto of Santa Maria, built inside the Vatican by Pope Leo in 1885 during the great cholera epidemic at Naples, but never used because of the absence of cholera patients, made ready for any emergency.

The influence of the church is to be used to assist the civil authorities in fighting the epidemic, the clergy having been urged to use all means to force compliance with the sanitary regulations on the part of their parishioners.

Slayer of Husband Is Freed by Jury

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 19.—A special to the Times from Libby, Mont. says the verdict of the jury in the case of Vera Prosser, charged with the murder of her husband, R. T. Prosser, on a Great Northern train is not guilty, on grounds of self-defense.

The jury was out 16 hours.

Bryan Replies to 'Marse Henry'

Not at Liberty to Consider Nomination from 'Purely Personal Standpoint.'

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 19.—Discussing the suggestion of Henry Watterson that William J. Bryan should consent to the nomination in 1912 by the Democrats of a candidate (Harmon) who bolted the party in 1906, Bryan in the Commoner says:

It seems to be assumed by the men for whom Colonel Watterson speaks that no man is fit to be elected President unless he helped to elect a Republican President fourteen years ago. If it would promote harmony for six and a half millions to announce that they gladly would follow one who laid down his arms and went over to the enemy would it also promote harmony for those who are left to announce that they gladly would support some one having an unbroken record for regularity?

Bryan is not at liberty to consider the matter from a purely personal standpoint. He owes something to the men who thrice nominated him in spite of the influences now trying to consolidate the platform and substitute reactionary for progressive ideas.

"Can we afford to surrender those supporters into the hands of the position merely to enjoy the plaudits of those who do not sympathize with the platform on which he ran?"

Vera Prosser Killed a Man On Train in Self-Defense Is Montana Verdict.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 19.—A special to the Times from Libby, Mont. says the verdict of the jury in the case of Vera Prosser, charged with the murder of her husband, R. T. Prosser, on a Great Northern train is not guilty, on grounds of self-defense.

The jury was out 16 hours.

State Officials Expect Special Session Call

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—Members of the assembly and state senate are preparing to answer the call for a special session of the legislature, which, they expect, will be called for the purpose of considering the issuance of a $5,000,000 bond issue for the fair. The legislature has issued a statement that he has not had time to carefully consider the matter, but he expects to arrive in this city within a week and discuss the project with the promoters.

PAPER IS SUED FOR PRINTING 'CONFESSION'

London Chronicle Must Show Why It Is Not in Contempt for Dr. Crippen Article

LONDON, Aug. 19.—The court of criminal appeals, on application by counsel representing Dr. H. H. Crippen, today granted a rule nisi, calling on the London Daily Chronicle to show cause why a writ of attachment should not be issued for contempt of court.

The alleged contempt consists of a story printed August 5, suggesting that Dr. Crippen had poisoned his wife. The article declared that Dr. Crippen had confessed to the murder of his wife, who was arrested him upon his arrival in Canadian waters, that he had killed his wife.

Counsel for Dr. Crippen produced a cable from Dr. Crippen denying that he had made any such confession.

Officer Attacked by Beast, Gives Chase; Finds It and Flees

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—Policeman William Celnar of the O'Farrell-street station was the victim of an attack by a marauder at Golden Gate avenue and Divisadero street early this morning. The officer was at first unaware of the nature of his assailant. He was patrolling his beat about 2 a. m. when the thing came from the direction of the cemetery. It jumped upon him and he used his nightstick to beat it off. As it prepared for another attack he drew forth his flashlight, and tried to get a view of it.

The beast, however, ran, closely pursued by the officer, still mystified as to its nature. Finally he saw it climb a tree and, approaching, turned on the light to find himself looking in the flashing eyes of a skunk. He fled. Everybody knew about it before Celnar made his report at the station and he has been the recipient of much joshing by his fellow officers.

Of the board of governors Messrs. Pittman and Kilham serve for two years. All of the other officers serve for but one year.

The electors also voted on nine proposed amendments to the constitution and by-laws, all of which were adopted except the second.

ASSAILANT OF GIRL MUST SERVE LIFE IN STATES PRISON

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—The District Court of Appeals this morning, in a decision written by Justice Kerrigan, affirmed the judgment and sentence of life imprisonment in the case of Giuseppe Carlo Bim, convicted of a heinous assault in San Rafael. The crime which not only shocked Marin county but caused widespread comment and horror throughout the State was committed February 1908, when Miss Mary Elizabeth Grapes, a young girl employed on the Marin journal, was waylaid at night, roughly handled, and tortured by her assailant.

After he had wreaked his vengeance upon her, the brute fled and the girl made her way to the home of neighbors. Finally Bim was arrested for the offense, found guilty and sentenced to San Quentin for life. Today's decision will probably start him immediately to the penitentiary.

VAUDEVILLE STAR LEADS BIG PARADE

Theatrical Mechanical Association and Friends in Turn Out.

Preliminary to a monster benefit to be held at the Macdonough Theater next Thursday afternoon, the Theatrical Mechanical Association and their friends turned out on Mardi Gras last night and for a few hours carnival fun reigned.

With Annette Kellerman in the lead, followed by Grand Marshal Cleve and his aide, William Daul the parade formed at Sixteenth and Broadway and marched to Ninth street, down Ninth to Washington, along Washington to Fourteenth, up to Broadway down to Twelfth and thence to Pythian Castle, where a banquet was served.

Every Oakland theater was represented with an auto in the parade and in many cases three or four. Among those especially praised for their artistic efforts were the two belonging to the Macdonough Theater carrying the company, in Colonial costumes, and that of the Gaiety appropriately decorated with lanterns.

At the benefit, which is for the general fund of the Theatrical Mechanical Association No. 21 all of the different companies now playing in the city will be well represented.

Gaynor May Escape Dangerous Operation

Physician Says the Bullet Will Never Cause Mayor Any Inconvenience.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Mayor Gaynor awoke today from a refreshing night's rest seemingly much improved in spirits and strength. His physicians say he had a fine night's sleep.

Gaynor will leave the hospital in Hoboken within ten days, practically cured of one of his attending physicians said today.

The physician said further that there were no present indications necessitating an operation and that the bullet gave the mayor no inconvenience and would not if it remained there the rest of his life.

Says 100 Are Working For O'Neil Browne

State's Attorney Wayman Admits Identification of Investigators.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—States Attorney Wayman admitted today that he had identified two of the alleged investigators who he states, are working for the defense in the Lee O'Neil Browne case. Their names are Adolph Sheffer and Fred L. Barker. It is charged that they are operatives of a private detective agency which has 100 men at work for Elmore.

Counsel for the defense stated that none of their investigators had been asked to see the families of venereans. States Attorney Wayman did not indicate what action, if any, he contemplates with regard to Barker and Sheffer.

Judge Keenan's pessimism as to conditions affecting the case was increased when the seventh panel of venereans was brought into court. Despite the widespread publicity given to his declaration that talking of the case to a venerean is a felony, four members of the panel said members of their families had been questioned concerning themselves, their politics, affiliations, etc. They were dismissed.

Japanese Preparing To Annex Korea

Country Placed Under Strong Military Guard; War Vessels Patrol the Coast.

SEOUL, Aug. 19.—Though nothing official can be learned confirming the reports that negotiations for the annexation of Korea by Japan are proceeding, many signs indicate that annexation is imminent. Long conferences between officials are constantly in progress, visits are frequently interchanged and great activity is noticed in the Japanese offices.

The entire country has been placed under a strong military guard and several Japanese war vessels are now patrolling the coasts of Korea. The situation indicates conditions of extreme tension, but officials maintain a sphinx-like attitude, refusing to make any statement regarding any action.

Congress of Reform Discusses Politics

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—The morning session of the Congress of Reform today, was devoted to devotional services. The afternoon was occupied with lectures on political and reform subjects. John W. Sweeney of this city spoke on the direct primary and Rev. G. Augustus Turner of New Zealand lectured on 'Progressive New Zealand Government and Its Ideals.' 'The Insurgent Movement' was discussed by Chester Rowell of Fresno, the president of the Lincoln-Roosevelt League.

Employers May Ask For Nine-Hour Day

Action in San Francisco to Be Based On Results in Seattle and Los Angeles.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 19.—Unless the struggle of the machinists in Seattle and Los Angeles, for an eight hour working day soon proves successful there is a probability that the employers in this city will insist on the men here going back to the nine hour basis, which prevailed previous to the signing of the eight hour working agreement, a little more than three years ago. This statement in effect was made today by an official of the California Metal Trades Association in response to an inquiry regarding the rumored termination of the eight hour agreement. Although this agreement expired June 1, it has twice been renewed, each time for one month.

It has not been renewed for August and for several days the machinists have been working without an agreement, though their hours have been unchanged.

Pending the reporting of a more definite understanding than exists at present, neither side to the controversy will make any positive statement regarding its possible outcome.

Plunges to Death From Second Story

FRUITVALE, Aug. 19.—Robert Haugley, a laborer, living at the home of H. G. Hinkley at Fruitvale and Chicago avenues, who fell from a window in the second story of the house at 2 o'clock this morning while seeking relief from an acute attack of asthma, died at 11 o'clock, after physicians had worked zealously to restore life.

He had been in the habit of rushing to the window when stricken with that malady, but this time became dizzy and lost his balance, falling directly to the sidewalk.

Death did not terminate his suffering for nine hours. The deceased is survived by relatives and parents in Ireland, his native land.

Important State Fights Are Still Undecided

KEESLING AND WALLACE BOTH CLAIM VICTORY

Lieutenant - Governor Fight Remains Undecided; Secretary of State Contest Likewise in Balance

Incomplete returns indicate a total vote of more than 95,000 for Hiram Johnson for the Republican nomination for Governor which will give him a clear majority over both Curry and Anderson. At the present time indications point to a probable plurality for Johnson over Curry of 40,000. Nearly one-half of the interior vote is missing from the returns available, but the indications point to a Republican primary vote of from 210,000 to 220,000. When the final returns are received a comparatively narrow margin between Anderson and Stanton will probably be broadened. In Central and Northern California Anderson ran away from Johnson, although he received only about one-third as many votes as Stanton and a little more than one-half as many as Curry.

CLOSE FIGHT.

One of the closest fights is for the nomination for lieutenant governor between Francis V. Keesling of San Francisco and Albert J. Wallace of Los Angeles. With the south, where Wallace ran best, practically complete, Keesling and Wallace are at a stand off, with the unreturned northern vote estimated to be in favor of the San Francisco man. Keesling's friends are claiming the victory.

Another puzzle is the race for secretary of state, which apparently only the official or completed unofficial returns can solve. On the face of the incomplete returns, Jordan, Wagner and O'Brien are running neck and neck. This morning Jordan insisted that he had unofficial returns showing that he had a lead of 400 with the unreported northern counties sure to increase his plurality.

The fight for nomination for state printer may not be determined as between W. W. Shannon, incumbent, and Friend William Richardson until the official count is canvassed. Richardson was prepared last night to believe that Shannon would win and offer tentative congratulations.

TAYLOR NOMINATED.

Taylor, Lincoln-Roosevelt league candidate for clerk of the supreme court, is nominated over Frank Caughey, incumbent, by a substantial plurality.

Additional returns served only to confirm the indications of the first partial returns as regards the nominations for controller, surveyor general and superintendent of public instruction, the incumbents winning handsomely with the exception of Nye, who was given a close race in many counties by Mattison. His majority was established in five figures by the voters of Alameda and Sacramento counties.

The only big upset noted indicated by the first partial and incomplete returns was the defeat of Alexander Brown for the board of equalization in the Second district. The return of the unofficial count for Alameda county shows the nomination of Mitchell over Brown by a big majority. Brown has been a member of the board for five years.

KENT WELL IN LEAD.

The completed returns will not change the indicated results in the five congressional districts where there were contests. Englebright is renominated in the First district by Judge John L. Childs, incumbent. The additional returns from the Second district only indicate an increasing majority for Kent, incumbent, over McKinnis. In the Third district, where Davidson is the Fifth district will probably be well over 5000 in the official canvass. Stephens, incumbent, beats McLachlan, Republican, by more than 2000 in the Seventh district, and Kirby, incumbent, came within an approximate 2000 of landing Smith in the Eighth.

SENATORIAL SITUATION.

The senatorial situation is a puzzle. In which Spalding, who ran something like 20,000 behind Works in the entire state, is apparently the winner of indorsements in a sufficient number of districts to elect him. While Johnson's plurality grows with leaps and bounds, a few spots on the map have been brightened up for Curry by the additional returns. The unofficial completed returns take Sacramento and Del Norte counties out of the Johnson column and give them to Curry.

The first returns indicated that Curry had carried Marin county with San Francisco. The unofficial completed returns last night gave Curry a lead of 30 votes over Johnson in Sacramento county and a lead of 51 in Del Norte.

Democratic State Committee Moving

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 19.—The Democratic State committee will meet in the Grand Union Hotel tonight to fix a time and place for holding the Democratic State convention. The indications are that the convention will be held in Saratoga following the adjournment of the Republican State convention, which meets on September 27.

The Rochester members of the State committee brought with them the substantial boom of Congressman James H. Watson.

While the name of Mayor Grinnell was most frequently discussed by members of the committee today as a possible candidate for Governor, there were several others mentioned.

They include Thomas M. Osborne of Auburn, chairman of the Democratic League, former State comptroller Martin H. O'Brien of Albany, Congressman William Sulzer of New York, Edward M. Shepard of Brooklyn, Judge John J. K. French of Westchester and former Judge D. C. Cadzow of Albany.

Arrested After Jury Had Exonerated Him

CARMEN, Okla., Aug. 19.—Harry O'Farrell, 22 years of age, was arrested yesterday when the latter was about to strike Mrs. Foster, after she had accused him of infidelity, was arrested today on a charge of murder, after a coroner's jury had exonerated him. The preliminary trial is set for tomorrow at Alva, Okla.

ROOSEVELT WILL REMAIN OUT OF STATE FIGHT

Colonel Says He Has Not Been Encouraged to Take Part in Struggle

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Colonel Roosevelt made it clear today to his friends that he did not intend to take any part in the coming state campaign were well based. As the colonel put it, he did not think he had been encouraged to take an active interest by the action of the state committee in turning down his name for temporary chairman of the convention. His close friends are the authority for the statement today that Colonel Roosevelt has never indicated by the slightest word what his intentions are with regard to the fight.

The colonel, however, has always said that he reserved the right to engage in any situation at any time whenever he feels that his policies demand.

Richardson Running Close With Shannon

The contest for the nomination for State Printer has narrowed down at the Lincoln-Roosevelt League candidate, and W. W. Shannon the incumbent of the office, the former leading by 350 votes. The returns on this contest are coming in slowly, less than one-half of the counties having been heard from. The returns, as far as received, give Richardson 37,712, Phillips 17,977, McDonald 17,596 and Shannon 10,125.

Conventions to Be Held Across Bay

The San Francisco conventions of the different parties are to be held as follows: Republican August 29 at 8 p. m., the place not being announced yet, Democratic, August 24 at 8 p. m. at Lyric Hall, Socialist, August 22 at 8 p. m. at 175 Mission street, Independence League, August 29 at 3565 Sixteenth street, Prohibition, August 29.

COOK'S VICTORY LODI CONTEST REGARDED AS TRIUMPH

His Devotion to Official Duties Wins Confidence of County Voters.

The victory of County Clerk John P. Cook, in re-election to the position which he has filled for the last eight years, with a majority of 1400, was one of the most signal triumphs of the late primaries, for the reason that Cook was unable to personally superintend a canvass for re-election because of the many unusual demands made upon his time by the new primary law, which went into effect soon after the adjournment of the last legislature.

While Cook's competitors were constantly on the street, or touring the county in search of votes, one of them, at least, at the expense of the taxpayers of the county, Cook was compelled to remain in his office, and during the campaign, but also at night and it was frequently after midnight when he was able to close his office to repair to his home for rest after a day of unusual engrossments.

The fact that Cook was attending to his duties was well known throughout the county, especially in the interior, where the taxpayers express the opinion that they elect a position to attend to business, not believing in sinecures, at their expense.

They were just as well aware that Cook's opponent was taking time away from his official duties in his canvass, when, they claimed, he ought to be at his desk during the day and devoting himself to his private campaigning during the night.

Cook's success, however, was brought about by his nature and because of the excellent manner in which he has conducted his office for the past eight years, his efforts having instituted a system in his department which has been adopted by many of the most successful officers of the same kind in this state.

SENATOR FIGHT REMAINS IN DOUBT

Spalding and Works Running Close, With Meserve Trailing Along in Rear.

Although Judge John D. Works of Los Angeles has a long lead in the aggregate advisory vote for United States senator, the returns from the primary election law and the peculiar disposition of the popular vote may result in making A. G. Spalding the leading candidate for Frank Flint's toga.

Incomplete returns indicate that Spalding has probably won plurality or majority indorsements in 53 assembly and senatorial districts, eliminating a probable minority of 13 Democratic districts in both houses and three districts which appeared to have indorsed Meserve.

Works' big votes and plurality of 20,000 may result in only 48 votes in the Republican caucus.

PECULIAR SITUATION.

A situation such as this in the senatorial fight would either throw the Republican legislators upon a secondary provision of the primary law or would leave the control of the situation in the hands of the men whose districts had endorsed Meserve. One of the provisions of the primary law is that senators and assemblymen may be elected either by the advisory vote of their respective districts or by vote for the candidates receiving the highest number of votes in a majority of the districts electing senators in that year.

VICTORY IN DOUBT.

On the face of the complete, incomplete and partial returns, Spalding has carried San Francisco, Alameda, Santa Clara, Merced, Fresno, Mendocino, Napa, Riverside, San Benito, Santa Clara, Sonoma, Eldorado and Del Norte counties. The complete returns may show that he has carried several more northern and interior counties. At the present time the senatorial situation is a puzzle which can only be solved by the segregation of the official returns of the counties and interior counties. The action of the caucus may serve to force through the legislature an aggregate vote amendment to the primary law.

CLOSE FIGHT FOR SECRETARY OF STATE

Jordan and O'Brien Running Together and Both Are Claiming Victory.

The result of the contest for the Republican nomination for Secretary of State appeared in doubt yesterday, the vote for Jordan and O'Brien being so close that as returns from different parts of the state kept coming in each would take the lead and hold it for a time. The latest figures that were obtainable last night gave Jordan first place, but put him out of the race by a narrow margin. With the returns of thirty-five counties, as they have been telegraphed to him, and with his estimates as to how other counties have gone, Jordan was confident last night that he had a lead of about a plurality of 3000 over O'Brien. Wagner, who received a heavy vote in the southern counties, fell behind so much in the northern part of the state that Jordan yesterday ceased to regard him as a dangerous factor.

RETURNS RECEIVED.

The returns for the three leading candidates, which were received here up to last night, gave the following totals: Jordan, 48,421; O'Brien, 45,180; Wagner, 45,180. The counties from which came the figures that furnished these footings were Alameda, Amador, Butte, Colusa, Contra Costa, Del Norte, El Dorado, Fresno, Glenn, Kings, Lake, Los Angeles, Mariposa, Mendocino, Merced, Mono, Napa, Orange, Placer, Riverside, Sacramento, San Benito, San Bernardino, San Diego, San Francisco, San Joaquin, San Luis Obispo, Santa Clara, Santa Barbara, Santa Cruz, Santa Inez, Stanislaus, Tehama, Trinity, Tulare, Ventura, Yolo and Yuba. Among the counties still to be heard from are several with a large vote. It is estimated that the returns from these counties will give him a much greater vote than O'Brien may get.

TELEGRAPHS FOR VOTE.

To get official information Jordan yesterday telegraphed to the county clerks throughout the state for the figures for himself, O'Brien and Wagner. He received responses from considerably more than half of the other counties, however, to feel certain that he had won the nomination. It is expected that such additional figures as may be secured today will settle the matter.

Taylor in Lead for Supreme Court Clerk

The four-cornered fight for the nomination for Clerk of the Supreme Court, the returns from which are in from about half of the counties of the state, shows that the conclusion of the contest between Taylor, the candidate of the Lincoln-Roosevelt League, and Bemiss, the regular Republican selection, is now a foregone conclusion. Taylor, running at least 5000 behind Fitzgerald, who is in the field on his own hook.

It does not seem that the full returns will materially change the relative standing of the candidates, which is now as follows: Taylor, 11,150; Bemiss, 35,859; Fitzgerald, 26,900 and Caughey, 22,227.

NOMINATIONS MADE FOR SENATE AND ASSEMBLY

Subjoined is a list from which some idea may be gained of the complexion of the next State Legislature. As the complete returns from the state primaries are not yet at hand, there may be some changes in the list of nominees, here and there; but from present indications the following appear to be the candidates from whom the State Legislature will be made up:

EXTENDS THANKS TO VOTERS WHO PUT HIM IN OFFICE

OAKLAND, Aug. 19, 1910.

Postum Cereal Co. Ltd. Battle Creek Mich

Unanimously Nominated by the People.

When two public officers who have attained their positions through appointment perform their respective duties with such perfect satisfaction that they receive at a primary election the unanimous vote of the people as their nominees for election to the positions they hold, nothing can bespeak more eloquently of the supreme confidence which is reposed in them and the high esteem in which they are held. Such is the enviable position which District Attorney William H. Donahue and Superior Judge William S. Wells occupy. Both have been nominated as the candidates of the people of Alameda county by unanimous vote. The final count of the ballots cast at Tuesday's primaries shows that each one was absolutely without opposition in any quarter in the county.

District Attorney Donahue was appointed by the Board of Supervisors to fill the vacancy created in the office by the elevation of Everett J. Brown to the Superior Court Bench as the successor of Judge Melvin when he was appointed by Governor Gillett to fill the vacancy on the Supreme Court Bench created by the death of Associate Justice McFarland to serve until the general election two years ago when he was elected by the people to complete the unexpired term of the deceased justice. Donahue's appointment occurred at a trying period in the history of the District Attorney's office; but he has since displayed such tact and ability in the performance of the grave and responsible duties of the office that the people have unanimously approved the wisdom of the Board of Supervisors in his selection. No public officer could be paid a greater compliment to his ability and conscientious performance of duty.

Judge William S. Wells was appointed by Governor Gillett to preside over the new department of the Superior Court created by the last Legislature for Alameda county. He had demonstrated his exceptional qualifications and judicial fitness for the position during the period he served on the Superior Bench in Contra Costa county. Since his appointment he has won the complete confidence and respect of the members of the Alameda County Bar through the fairness with which he has administered justice and his unanimous selection by the electorate of the county as the only logical candidate for election to succeed himself is not only a high testimonial to his own fitness but, also, an endorsement of the wisdom displayed by Governor Gillett in his appointment.

The construction of the Antioch and Oakland electric railway is being prosecuted with such vigor that it will not be long before Oakland will have another means of communication with Contra Costa county and the Sacramento valley. The opening of the new railway will be a great event in the history of Contra Costa county, as it will bring its most fertile valleys, which have hitherto been almost inaccessible, into direct communication with this city. Its effect is already noticeable in the drift of settlement into the Walnut creek region, the heart of which will be traversed by the road and, of late, a large amount of outside capital has been invested in homesites there.

Asiatic Cholera Spreading in Europe.

For over a year past an epidemic of cholera has existed in Russia. Neighboring States have in self-defense maintained a close quarantine of the Russian border to keep out the scourge. Germany has been especially vigilant; but a few cases crossed the line before they were discovered. Strict measures were, however, promptly adopted to prevent infection and the dreaded disease failed to get a foothold on German soil.

Now comes the startling news that the Asiatic plague has broken out in virulent form in the Italian province of Bari della Puglia which is located in the southeastern part of the peninsula on the shores of the Adriatic sea. Deaths from cholera are reported from many towns throughout the province, which proves that the disease has taken deep root and the Italian government is facing a grave situation. Of course, the government has adopted vigorous measures to prevent the spread of the epidemic and the Church of Rome is co-operating with it to attain the same end. The bishops have been instructed to employ every means in their power to stamp out the scourge in the infected territory and to enforce hygienic measures for the isolation of suspects.

In all probability the cholera invasion of Italy came direct by sea from Odessa, whence a party of Russians recently visited Bari, although a band of gypsies that has been roaming through the country is under suspicion of being the source of infection. If the scourge entered the country by sea from Odessa it implies that the quarantine of the Italian coast has been lax. Now the whole civilized world will have to adopt the most rigid quarantine against Italy as well as against Russia in self-defense. The eastern coast of the United States is particularly exposed to infection owing to the large Italian immigration entering the country through eastern ports. It may be necessary to close our ports to Italian commerce as the safest means of self-protection.

The attachment of the certified check deposited by the contractors to whom the contract for building the south side quay wall was awarded is at this time particularly unfortunate, as it threatens to tie up the contract and delay its execution unless the Harbor Commission can find some means of relieving itself of the tangle, which it is profoundly hoped it will be able to do. This important work has been so long delayed that the public have become extremely impatient.

Smelter Smoke Problem Solved.

The adoption of devices to filter the smoke of the furnaces of the big smelters of Shasta county and precipitate the poisonous minerals contained in it before it is discharged in the air, is producing good results and has turned the tide of settlers and home-seekers toward that county from Southern California and the Eastern States. Shasta county contains considerable available farming land; but the damage done to crops and vegetation and tree growth of all kinds by the poisonous fumes within a radius of twenty miles or more of the smelters made farming unprofitable and for many years past stopped new settlement and agricultural development in the county almost entirely. It took a long period of costly litigation on the part of the farmers located within the affected area to force the smelting companies to put in smoke-purifying plants. They desired to avoid the expense entailed in their erection and the manufacture of the poisonous by-products into commercial commodities. The investment in these purifying plants has proved, however, profitable to the companies, independent of the economic advantage associated with the discontinuance of costly damage suits in which they have been involved for over a decade past.

The economic value of the elimination of the poisonous fumes from the smelter smoke to the county is demonstrated in the revival of home-seekers on the agricultural lands. The two great industries of copper mining and smelting and agriculture will now be carried on in perfect harmony and for mutual benefit. Fruit and grain growing and stock raising can be carried on in the county now with perfect security and the mining and smelting towns along the mineralized zone will provide a profitable market for a large proportion of the farm and orchard products. The solution of the smelter smoke problem has thus been solved satisfactorily to all concerned.

Governor Hughes is said to be having difficulty in securing a domicile in Washington, D. C., which he can occupy when he moves there to take his place on the bench of the United States Supreme Court to which he was appointed by President Taft some months ago. The trouble grows out of the fact that Washington houses of the type Governor Hughes wants contain no provision for libraries and study-rooms which seems to reflect on the literary standing of the people generally at the seat of government.

The strong grip the cholera epidemic has secured in Russia is shown by the announcement of twenty thousand new cases in the country in one week and 23,000 deaths between August 7 and August 13.

Stories About Men

Leroy Templeton is one of Indiana's real captains of industry. His specialty is the farming industry, and he is one of the comparatively few men who have made millions of dollars out of the soil. By mixing his brains and energy with his farming he has achieved great success, amassing and giving away large fortunes. Recently he has distributed deeds to relatives by which he gave away property worth $400,000 to $500,000, and he is still a rich man. Although he is approaching his 81st birthday he is still full of vitality and enthusiasm, of cheerfulness and optimism, as the average young man of 21.

"If young men will take my advice," he said to an interviewer, "they will go to the farm instead of seeking to enter the professional walks of life. There is money to be made on the farm, plenty of it, and it affords an independent, respectable livelihood. All of the professions are overcrowded. I know thousands of young men in the professions, principally lawyers and doctors, who are nearly starving. The veterinarian of today is making more money than the family doctor. Just think of it—the horse doctor doing better than the physician who attends the human family!"—Indianapolis Star.

This story, to show that a dog will not make a "beast of himself," is told by John Fraser in "Our Dumb Animals." "When I was a teacher in Kilmaculcagh parish I was using whiskey bitters for my stomach's sake. One day I dipped a piece of cake in them and gave it to the dog. He grudgingly ate it, curling his lip to avoid the taste. Ever long he had become used to it; he howled most piteously, and naturally looked up in my face as if for help. He began to stagger and fell like a drunken man. The appearance on his face and eyes was extraordinary. He lay on the floor and howled until the effects of the drink wore off. The dog never forgot the trick. Whenever afterward I went to the press or the bottle he hastened to the outside of the house."—New York Tribune.

The piece got into the paper and Bone was promptly "fired."—Kansas City Journal.

The funeral services over the body of the late Dr. Samuel Merritt were conducted this afternoon at the late residence of the deceased on Madison street between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets by Rev. Dr. J. K. McLean, pastor of the First Congregational church. Rev. Dr. Harold C. Stebbins of the Unitarian church, San Francisco, delivered the eulogy. A quartet consisting of Mrs. Otis, Miss Lizzie Boyer, Harry Richards and W. G. Woods, sang "Some Sweet Day Bye and Bye." The pall-bearers were Noble Hamilton, John A. Stanley, Israel Lawton, W. A. Aldrich, I. W. Taber, John Birmingham, A. M. Simpson, Hiram Tubbs, W. C. Bartlett and A. K. P. Harmon. The body was temporarily placed in Charles Roberts' vault in Mountain View cemetery.

The board of supervisors, as committee of the whole, held a meeting yesterday afternoon for the purpose of hearing discussion concerning the fixing of water rates in county. J. C. Martin represented the corporation, and Messrs. McElrath, Tibbels and Lawton appeared for the citizens' committee of one hundred. J. E. McElrath made a brief address, and stated that he is dissatisfied with the report made by the company. He wanted to have witnesses present and examine them concerning the receipts and expenses of the corporation. He is desirous of getting at the exact amount of receipts and expenses, so that the rates may be justly fixed.

The council last night finally passed some ordinances that have been greatly desired for some time past by the fire department. The instruments authorize the purchase of two more chemical engines at a cost of $3500, one to be placed in East Oakland and one at the Watts tract, and for the erection of $2500 engine house in North Oakland.

The officers of the school department say that their request for a loan of $5000 from the council for the construction of a 4-room addition to the Garfield school is an absolute necessity. The school is crowded and there are daily applications from people for admittance and all have to be turned away.

A change has been made in the estimate for the free library that was submitted yesterday by Secretary Peterson. It will be remembered that Auditor asked for a new building but Auditor, after glancing over the figures, noticed this, and saw that the demand was impossible, for the law says that the library can only have one mill on every $100 of assessable property.

The average woman's idea of an honest grocer is one who attends the same church she does.

STORIES ABOUT PEOPLE

"If a burglar breaks into your house at night, don't try to corner him," said an old Headquarters policeman in commenting on the killing of Ira G. Rawn, near Chicago, reported to have been done by a robber. "If the visitor awakens you, make noise enough to scare him away, but don't go after him with a gun. Ten to one he'll get you before you can hit him. It's better to lose a few dollars' worth of goods than your life. I'm giving it to you straight." The average man, waked up in the middle of the night, always badly frightened, hasn't a chance against the man with nerve enough to break into an occupied house. Every burglar is a potential murderer and will shoot to kill if you try to catch him. And why not? He's got a big, long term in prison staring him in the face if he's nabbed, and he'll take a chance on murder every time to get away. Leave the capture of such gentry to the cops. They're paid to be shot at, you ain't."

Dr. W. A. Evans, Chicago's original Health Commissioner, has issued a new edition of "healthograms," as he calls some of his sanitary rules. "Flth, flies and fever are the three (dis)graces," writes Dr. Evans. He adds these nuggets of advice:

"It's real estate you're looking for, but not polio." It's 35 per cent dist. "The typhoid chain of F's—flth, fingers, flies, foods, fever." "Typhoid to prevent costs a few cents, to cure costs many dollars." "Not every fly that comes along is carrying disease germs, but many of them are, and you can't tell which is which. Take no chances—swat all."

Dr. Woods Hutchinson's dental that reputed centenarians furnish good credentials appeals to "The Christian Register." It cites the case of a Massachusetts man who said to be 101, cast his first vote in 1822 for Governor Lincoln and voted for eighty-eight Governors in all. "Now, if at the age of twenty-one, he voted for a Governor eighty-eight years ago, he is at present 109 years old," says "The Register." "If he is now only 101 years old and voted eighty-eight years ago, he did it at the age of thirteen. During those eighty-eight years there certainly have not been eighty-eight Governors in Massachusetts. This is a fine illustration of the kind of evidence that Dr. Hutchinson says is usually presented."

"The Crown Princess Cecilie is the honorary colonel of a crack regiment of dragoons, which maneuvered recently on the plain of Oels. A regiment of cavalry in action is always an imposing spectacle," says a foreigner who was present, "but this occasion was made additionally so by the presence at the head of the picturesque column of the royal woman colonel. She sat her charger as well as any officer of the command, her uniform, from the flashing helmet to the spurred boot, fitted her faultlessly, and with never a vestige of the robust and coarse amazon, she looked every inch a soldier."

London's Roman Boat

It is, by the computation of the archaeologists, about sixteen centuries since the Roman boat lately discovered near Westminster Bridge took water. It has been exhumed on the site of the new London County Council Hall on the south bank—or partly exhumed; since we understand that the stern of the boat is still imbedded in the clay in which the hull is fixed. It is the only vessel of the period of which any trace has been found in these islands, and we owe its survival, it seems, to its having burnt to the water's edge and then sunk in the Thames, which was wider then by at least as much as the distance separating the remains from the channel of today. The boat, with the miscellaneous trifles found in it, speaks to us directly of the splendid and confident civilization in which the conquest of barbarian Britain was but a detail; a civilization more assured, more peaceful, more majestic than any which the world has known since. It passed away and was forgotten; and today the scholar who holds the clerkship of the London County Council disputes with his peers in archaeological lore over the significance of this or that dug-up fragment of the shell of Imperial Rome. This heavy-timbered Roman boat, that traded 'till it surmised' between London and the French coast, did so with as much matter-of-fact security as any steamer of today. It is a whole-some thought for London, the greatest of the cities of the earth, and we hope that the County Council will find some place of public monstrosity for this relic of England's Roman past.—London Daily News.

ANECDOTES AGAIN

Nothing is better calculated to enforce the truth of the saying of Kheleth that there is no new thing under the sun than the return, at stated intervals, of the ancient anecdotes, fitted to new persons or new occurrences, or merely revived for the entertainment of an ingenious new generation knocking at the door. Indeed, it would appear as if the stock of them were so limited that one must resign himself to listening to nothing but thinly disguised repetitions after he has reached the age of forty. No eminent prelate can die without a revival of the story of the family silver and the "poor but honest" telegram. Whittier's "I am not arguing with you, I am telling you," has turned up in unexpected places since he said it, even in "Punch;" and the Irishman who attempted to smoke glass in his pipe causes us to dread the next sun eclipse, though that is not due here till 1918.

We live in fearsome expectation just now of the revival of the anecdote of the barrel of whiskey, the copper nail, the bit of leather and the connoisseurs, in connection with the recent death of an eminent Kentuckian. The story has been told of him before, and of another eminent statesman. Some years ago it was adjudged worthy of a prize in a contest. We have been unable to dodge it since we read it first in Motteux's seventeenth century translation of "Don Quixote" thirty years ago.

But greatest torture of all is to sit at a dinner table after the ladies have risen and to be obliged to listen with feigned gaiety to the son of the host, in his junior year, who tries to enliven the table by telling them one after the other, all the musty stories of their own college days.—New York Tribune.

Topics Timely and Interesting

Pittsburg will be a city umbrageous if its recently appointed tree commission can make it so. And the Gazette-Times has given the project a boost by saying: "Pittsburg has caught the spirit. It trees the limbs of which will form protection from the noonday sun and cast spectral shadows by night. Its bare rocks and ragged bluff are to be adorned with trailing vines; from a city of streets it is to become a metropolis of shady lanes."

Boston is justly proud of the record made by a 15-year-old girl, Rose Pitonof, who swam from Charlestown bridge to Boston light, covering close to twelve miles in a little short of an hour. It took more than a stroke of a thousand strokes to carry her the distance, and the average temperature of the water was 53 degrees. Seven men who attempted the swim had to give it up. She was accompanied by five men in two rowboats, and her only rests were obtained by occasionally swimming on her back.

Speaking of the cost of living, it is noted by The Hartford Courant that not many years ago, it was difficult to sell a swordfish outside of the Boston market. This season it is difficult to get. The supply is less than usual. One reason assigned for this alleged scarcity is that the submarine hells have frightened the big fish off their accustomed grounds, which grounds, by the way, are water. It appears now that within a couple of days a sword fish weighing 550 pounds was brought into Boston and sold at 23 cents a pound right off the boat, the retailer to get his profit later.

On August 15 it will be forty-five years since the Suez Canal was opened. The fact was spoken of yesterday by a merchant who has a remembrance of the celebration a guest card which designated the place which his father occupied at a dinner in celebration of the event at Cairo. "I shall keep it," he said, "until the Panama ditch is finished, and who knows but I may have a companion card then to frame with the old souvenir."

Over in Italy producers of vegetables are combining against the exaction and rapacity of the middlemen, and Consul J. Q. Wood reports from Venice that recently the truck gardeners of Chioggia organized a selling society, as an investigation revealed that many of their vegetables were selling in Venice at 100 per cent higher than what was secured for them at the farm. "Today the Province of Venice has fifty of these co-operative societies, and all of the provinces of the district regard a similar development of the co-operative idea as applied to agricultural activities."

Government Boat Back From Northern Waters

HALEFAX, Aug. 19.—Having landed a party of engineers and surveyors at Port Churchill in Hudson straits, where they are making a survey for the Hudson Bay railway, the Canadian government steamer Stanley has returned from her trip to northern waters. She sailed on July 2 from this port.

From the reports of those on board the Stanley, unless the surveying party can find a channel through the shoal water at Port Nelson, which had been considered as the likely terminal of the railway, Churchill will be selected as the shipping port.

TINY BABY HAD DREADFUL ECZEMA

On Hands, Face, Nose and Mouth. Hard Crust Formed and Cracked Open. Blood Ran. Itched Frightfully. Mitts on Hands. No Rest.

Got Cuticura. In 3 Days Relief. In a Week Cured Without a Mark.

"I have a little baby almost a year old. When it was two months old it got eczema on all of both her hands, on her face and under her nose and mouth. It was so bad that she could not sleep and she would not eat. I tried everything I could find and one of her eyes almost closed up. A hard crust formed and cracked open and the blood ran out. It itched so frightfully that the poor little thing could not rest. We had to keep mitts on her hands and keep her from scratching at her face and head. I was so worried that I had a very good doctor and he told me to use Cuticura. In 3 days relief. In a week cured without a mark."

"We had read of the Cuticura remedy so we went to the drug store and got some Cuticura soap and Cuticura ointment. We used them just as directed and in three days the crust began to come off. In a week there was no more and now the baby is cured without a mark. Sleeps peacefully in her cradle and her parents in their bed. I am sure that Cuticura is a wonderful remedy for skin diseases and any one having eczema should not delay in getting it. Henry M. Ford, R. F. D. 1, Bath, Pa., Dec. 8, 1909."

HEARTLESS AUTOIST RUNS DOWN MAN; SPEEDS AWAY

Assistant Manager of Suit House Near Death From Injuries Received.

DETECTIVES SEARCH FOR MISSING DRIVER

Victim Had Just Stepped From Car When Machine Hit Him.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—A big black touring car traveling at the rate of twenty-five miles an hour and containing two women and a man in addition to the chauffeur ran down the Golden Gate Clock and suit house on this city, last night at Haight and Laguna streets, causing injuries which will probably result in the death of the victim.

The chauffeur, after a hurried glance in the direction of his victim, put on speed and left the unconscious man lying in the roadway.

At the time of the accident, the victim, who lives at 128 Laguna street, had just stepped out of an outboard Haight street car. The automobile, which, according to passengers on the car, was traveling at the rate of about twenty-five miles an hour, struck the victim, flinging him close to the side and striking his head against the curbstone.

CAR SPEEDS AWAY.

The chauffeur made no attempt to slow down, but put on speed and sped away before anyone on the car could get a glimpse of the number of the machine. When the police were notified they were unable to secure any trace of the driver. Detectives Thomas Daley, who was detailed to investigate the running down of the victim, arrested a chauffeur of an automobile agency assisted him in proving an alibi.

At the Verlin C. Thomas, who lives at the Hotel Argonaut, and who was a passenger on the car, made the following statement in reference to the tragedy:

AUTO GOING FAST.

"The automobile was a big black machine and was speeding down the Haight street hill at least twenty-five miles an hour. The car was going up the hill when I stepped out and was struck. He was hurled at least twenty feet, and the shock of the impact could be heard distinctly by the passengers on the car."

"The man at the wheel made no effort to stop, and the manner in which he sped away was heartless in the extreme. Accidents can't be helped, of course, but the criminal cruelty of this driver was suggestive of murder. I would very much like to see him arrested, and believe that he can be found if the police begin at once to inspect every machine similar to the one that ran down the victim. I believe the man at the wheel of the machine, and there should be marks about the left wheel-guard or other parts of the machine that would enable the police to trace it."

RECALLS BUNTON TRAGEDY.

The running down of the victim and the escape of the chauffeur last night is similar in its details to the tragedy of last month, when Colonel Laurie Hunter of the Bohemian Club was run down and killed by an automobile, the driver and the occupants of the machine making a complete get-away.

Interior Department Agents in Oil Fields

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 19.—A special to the Express from Bakersfield says: Several agents of the Interior Department are here making a thorough investigation and securing all possible data relative to the status of existing oil claims and the history of operations thereon, to guide the department in passing on the application for patents and other matters that may come before the general land office officials.

Reflecting the anxiety of local oil men caused by the refusal of the general land office to recognize a mineral location filed on land prior to the discovery of oil, a general convention of oil men interested in the public lands has been called to meet in Bakersfield on September 4.

BRUTAL THUGS TRY TO SLAY VICTIM

James Hogan Fights Assaultants in Early Morning Encounter.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—Waylaid on a lonely bridge crossing the estuary in the darkness of the early morning, James Hogan of 912 Minnesota street, an attaché of the sheriff's office, fought a hard battle with two footpads who attempted to hold him up, and received an ugly stab wound in the back in the melee.

Hogan started across the bridge which spans Sixth street from the southern end. He had proceeded almost to the middle when two men, who had concealed themselves behind a pillar, suddenly stepped out in front of him. Without a word they proceeded to use their fists, striking him in the face, and endeavoring to throw him.

CRIES FOR AID.

He cried lustily for aid and warned off their attacks as best he could. Finally one of the assailants drew a knife, and he held the blade ready to strike Hogan cried out again.

Footpads could be heard in the distance and with an oath the man plunged the steel into his victim's back and the pair made off.

Hogan made his way along until he met a policeman, who had him conveyed to the Central Emergency Hospital. His wound, though painful, is not serious.

Refusing himself to all callers and visitors, he has arisen daily at 7 o'clock and devoted seven hours to his literary labors. Then he has laid aside the pen for the golf club, spending several hours of the afternoon on the links of the Chabot Country Club in beautiful recreation at his favorite sport.

Professor Gayley is widely known as the author of Gayley's "Classical Mythology," a text-book used in almost all preparatory schools, and more recently of "Ideals of Education," a book which aroused widespread comment and discussion in educational circles. The work upon which he is engaged at present will be the crowning result of years of research, and is expected to place him securely in the hall of literary fame.

Quality Pianos

Are Cash Saving Pianos

No matter how cheaply—you may be priced a piano—unless quality is considered, your investment will prove a costly one.

Many who have purchased through the seeming saving offered by guessing contests, pianos without interest and other unreasonable baits—now recognize the claims we have consistently based our business success on—QUALITY.

A cheaply-constructed piano is expensive, no matter how little you may pay for it. The average life of a cheap piano is not more than one-fourth that of a piano like the Knabe, Mason & Hamlin, Hardman, Packard, Ludwig, Kingsbury, Conover and other pianos that we represent—QUALITY PIANOS—EVERY ONE OF THEM—the kind of pianos that daughters and granddaughters have had handed down to them.

The piano on which you get your value is the one that will be giving good tone, value thirty or forty years hence. Pianos of QUALITY only can be depended on. We sell quality pianos only and we merit your confidence. Our prices are right. The lowest possible, quality considered. Come in and see our pianos if for means of comparison only. Buy where you please after comparing our pianos with any other houses. We have some used pianos at very cheap prices that we have exchanged on our player pianos and better uprights and grands. Some very fine practice pianos for beginners. Easy terms if desired.

LIQUOR IN NAVY IS NOT BARRED

W. C. T. U. Informed Secretary Has Not Approved of Measure.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—California wines may be received and used on the cruiser California, and on any other ship of the United States navy, the Women's Christian Temperance Union, to the contrary notwithstanding.

According to a telegram received today by the officers of the local Women's Christian Temperance Union branch, the ladies appealed to a regulation which has no actual existence when they sent their telegram informing the secretary of the navy that the acceptance of the present sent by the California wine growers to the reply telegram, signed by Acting Secretary Winthrop, informs the reform congress that the regulation referred to in the efforts made to keep the California vintage off of the cruiser California could not be found.

The members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union had formed an impression that former Secretary of the Navy John D. Long had adopted the regulation which barred the use of wine on warships.

COMEDIENNE COMES FROM DEATH'S PRESENCE TO DANCE

JOSIE HEATHER, dainty English comedienne, at the Oakland Orpheum.

Behind the winsome smiles with which Miss Josie Heather won her audiences at the Oakland Orpheum during the past week the tears have been very close, for she sang and danced that a mother might be with her dying babe.

The 3-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Jack McGreevy, "the eccentric noddler," was taken suddenly ill just before they were to open in their Oakland engagement and died Tuesday evening.

Miss Heather had been assisting Mrs. McGreevy in the care of the suffering little one and had been up all night with her when the Orpheum management called upon her to appear in the McGreevy piece on the program of So, Greasy, from the bedside of the babe.

Tragedy in lives. Devoted to comedy before the footlights, the McGreevys seem destined to sorrow in their private lives. It is just a sorry since they lost another babe, which met a tragic fate, being scalded to death before his mother's eyes. Now they are on their way to their home in Texas with the dead body of their only remaining child.

Before leaving for Texas the McGreevys canceled their contract with the Orpheum circuit. They were unusually popular in the profession and their untimely loss cast a gloom over the child.

Nothing was left undone by the vaudeville troupe that might give comfort to the bereaved parents, Miss Heather and the four Ford being particularly generous in every way.

When Miss Heather was called upon to take the McGreevys' place she stipulated that they should continue to receive their salary until able to resume their work, as she was glad to be able to help the family in this way.

McGreevy's big-hearted generosity of the little English comedienne that has endeared her to the members of her profession and which undoubtedly contributed largely to that charm of personality which makes for public success.

CITY HOLD IS TIGHTENED ON WATERFRONT LANDS

The Southern Pacific Railroad Accepts Reversion Clause in Franchise.

Through the acceptance last night of the reversion clause on the part of the Southern Pacific railroad, by which the land and property of the company on the low tide line on the Oakland side shall revert to the ownership of the city on the payment of the value of the improvements, the final obstacle in the path of securing the big franchise was overcome, and the city was given at last a firm hold on its waterfront. It is probable that with the exception of a few technical changes, the franchise will be granted on the terms agreed upon as a result of the series of conferences between city officials and representatives of the Southern Pacific company.

LITIGATION SETTLED. Last night's council committee meeting settled the problems of litigation and problems of waterfront control that have been a bone of contention between the city and company for the past 12 years. By the agreement reached last night the title of the city to the waterfront, the agreement upon the terms of the franchise means that the city has gained an unshakable hold on the waterfront, and the railroad has been given almost priceless advantages to have and hold for the next fifty years as a trust from the city.

It means that the improvements, running into millions of dollars, planned by the great transportation corporation will be under way shortly in the perfection of the local system of interurban lines, wharves and passenger and freight service. It means that there will be cooperation between the railroad and the municipality in the development of the waterfront, in the use of the interurban lines, in the use of the waterfront, and that the waterfront will hum and throb with a great commerce.

STETSON DRAWS FRANCHISE. The ordinance granting the franchise was drawn, in this instance, not by the corporation attorneys, but by City Attorney Stetson, and was framed along lines laid down in the famous memorandum of agreement. As a result of this, there was little to modify in the original draft of the ordinance, with exception of a few technical points, until President of the City Council Pendleton brought up the matter of including a reversion clause in the instrument. That was discussed at several meetings of the council, and a waterfront committee, to which the franchise ordinance had been referred, and at a recent meeting the committee and the corporation attorneys locked horns over the matter. without regard to earnings, capacity, in the manner in which the price to be paid by the city for improvements will be fixed by the board of appraisers.

CONFERENCE IS CALLED.

It was on this account that a general conference was called last night, and Mayor Mot invited to attend all of the members of the board of appraisers, and what discussion there had been of a reversion clause in the franchise was brought up at the conference.

In our conferences with the Southern Pacific company it was necessary to wait for two trips made by the late E. H. Harriman to the Pacific coast. During the conferences, which were held in the Key Route building, we tried to incorporate a reversion clause in the agreement but failed to do so. Harriman objected, and finally, as time was pressing, we let this matter go.

DECIDE TO ACQUIRE.

Following the explanation by the mayor, Jere T. Burke informed the conference that the railroad had decided to acquiesce in the request for a reversion clause, but asked that it be made the same as that in the Key Route franchise, and that it be made to affect only the low tide property and the absolute private property of the railroad at the point. He asked that the phrase concerning the physical nature of the improvements be left out of the franchise, as it would bind the hands of the future board of appraisers and cloud the issue in an unwarrantable manner.

President of the Council Pendleton responded for the city. "We are highly pleased that the railroad has been willing to make this concession. From what I understand from the mayor, it is a concession we did not get, and it is a technical right to make from the company, as the memorandum of agreement, ratified by the people, did not contain it."

SHOULD NOT BE BURDENED.

"I think that it is perfectly fair that the franchise should not be loaded, as provided for in the Key Route franchise, should be a fair body, and if the railroad can afford to trust its claims to the board, I do not see why the city should not do the same. The board of appraisers will consist of a man appointed by the city, one by the railroad, and a third by two members of the board. The third by two members of the board. I think it is a fair proposition, and I think we should accept it, and let the railroad have the franchise."

QUEEN IS CROWNED AT ELMHURST CARNIVAL

Maybell Bateati Rules Over Festival and Bids All Rejoice.

PARADE IS LONGEST TOWN HAS WITNESSED

Fraternal Organizations and School Children Take Part in Pageant.

ELMHURST Aug. 19.—The Elmhurst street carnival was officially opened last night with the crowning of Queen Maybell Bateati by Justice of Peace Quinn and parade of a number of the fraternal organizations and school children. The trees are strung with the colors of the carnival and illuminated by hundreds of electric lights. Everything is in festive color and hardly a shop or store on Fourth street has failed to co-operate with the carnival promoters in the scheme of decoration.

The parade last night which started at Tones avenue proceeded up Fourth street to Stonehurst then continued to the queen's stand opposite the power house where the crowning ceremonies took place. The local lodge of Foresters of America under whose auspices the carnival is being given turned on in full and were supplemented by the Oakland and San Leandro lodges.

LODGES PARTICIPATE

Many other lodges both from Elmhurst and the surrounding bay cities participated as did the Grand Army men and the school children from Elmhurst High land and Lodi wood schools. There were number of floats besides the ones on which the queen was enthroned. One of the unique features of the parade was a float upon which was seated an infant queen surrounded by diminutive ladies in waiting and drawn by a number of boys. Following the presentation of the keys of the town to Queen Bateati the new crown and scepter were proclaimed of the reign of festivity. Inviting one and all to participate in the pageant. Following this Mayor Mott and County Supervisor Wm. Bridge both made short addresses congratulating the people on the carnival which they had handled the undertaking to this point.

Following the crowning exercises a large carnival dance was held in Rodman's Hall until a late hour. Today it has been designated as San Leandro Day and tomorrow will be given over to the Foresters of all of the surrounding places.

$400,000 WOL-FIRE
BOSTON Aug. 19.—The $400,000 damage suit of the Portola Fire Company against the members of the fire trust was continued yesterday.

The only witness called was a bookkeeper of the Portola Company. He testified that during the first fortnight of the Portola's existence business was good but then receipts began to dwindle until they fell away to a most pitiful figure.

He attributed the cause of the loss of business to the fact that the retailers and peddlers who had at first patronized the company later withdrew their support. He claimed to have no personal knowledge as to facts connected with the change.

Morocco produced the books of the company which showed that after the first three weeks the business of the Portola Company was run at a loss. The case will be continued Monday at which time James A. Devoto attorney of the defense will be introduced.

Mothers' Clubs Elect Mrs. Spencer President
The Oakland Federation of Mothers' Clubs at a meeting held yesterday at the Lafayette school elected the following officers: President Mrs. Herbert M. Spencer (re-elected), vice president Mrs. W. B. Staley, secretary Mrs. Charles L. Gilbert, treasurer Mrs. J. M. Kellogg. A committee composed of Mrs. Spencer and Mrs. Staley was appointed to take up the matter of visiting the city's 42 schools with a view to organizing mothers' clubs in each.

The next meeting of the federation will take place one month from yesterday. Routine work will follow the discussion.

Pullman Shops~

The Completion of These Shops Means Money to You

THE picture above is from a photo taken last week of the Pullman Shops in course of construction—it won't be long now until they are complete. Look at the picture. While it does not bring out the detail, nor do justice to the work, it gives an idea of the character of the structure. It is a building that any community would be proud of—a building that compares favorably with down town business blocks. The minute that this building is complete and the thousand odd mechanics of the Pullman Co. start work on the erection and repairing of cars, property values will double and treble in North Berkeley Terrace.

When the whistle blows on the morning that these shops are thrown open to the operating division a lot in North Berkeley Terrace that you can now buy for two hundred and fifty will be really marketable for five hundred dollars. It is the opportunity of the age—read on.

North Berkeley Terrace is on San Pablo avenue, Oakland—Richmond cars pass the tract—the Santa Fe local runs through the center, and the Key Route right of way traverses the northern boundaries; just south the Southern Pacific electric extension from Berkeley to all bay points is rapidly nearing completion. North Berkeley Terrace is improved in a superior manner—has graded streets, cement sidewalks and water mains—schools, stores and churches are on the tract—just across the street is a postoffice and a short distance away is a park and picnic ground. The land is high and level—it overlooks the bay, Richmond, Berkeley and Oakland—the air is pure and the climate good. In short, North Berkeley Terrace, augmented by factors that operate for its permanent success, offers all that could be desired in a residential site, and for the speculator the "element of chance" is reduced to an infinitesimal minimum, making investments in this property as safe as government bonds.

How to reach the tract Take Oakland-Richmond electric cars direct to our office on the corner of San Pablo and Potrero avenues.

When Is Corned Beef Not Corned Beef? He Asks; When It's Teeth

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 19.—Following the discovery of a dog's paw in a can of preserved tongue owned by Philip Vresinski, a merchant of Jackson, La., a formal complaint was made yesterday to the United States food inspection bureau by Francis Doyle of 615 Philip street, this city, that he found a human tooth in a can of corned beef bearing the label of the same Chicago packing house mentioned in Vresinski's letter to Prof. L. L. McGee, chemist in charge of the government laboratory.

Doyle's discovery was made exhibit A—the tooth itself. It is evidently from a man who was equipped with molars of unusual size. The edges are rounded as though the tooth had slid through a meat grinding machine. Vresinski's letter was forwarded to the chief inspector of the pure food bureau in Washington.

Professor McGee has demanded that the Jackson merchant return to New Orleans the cases of canned goods under suspicion, in order that a chemical analysis may be made.

Until its contents are tested nothing official will be given out. Professor McGee said the name of the Chicago packing house was mentioned in Vresinski's letter, but declined to tell it until it has been largely established that the concern is criminally negligent.

Son Kills His Father
During Family Quarrel
CARMEN, Okla., Aug. 19.—L. Foster, 60 years old, a farmer, was shot and instantly killed by his son Harry, 22 years old, yesterday during a family quarrel. Young Foster voluntarily surrendered to the authorities and later was exonerated by the coroner's jury.

The boy shot in defense of his mother, whom his father had attacked.

Take Along Manners If You Ever Go Abroad; Leave Postcards Home

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—American tourists are warned to take their manners abroad with them in a statement issued to the press by the vicar of the church at Stratford-on-Avon.

The vicar complains that a certain class of American tourists attend the services in his church merely to visit Shakespeare's tomb in the church.

This would not be so bad if they behaved themselves properly while in church. But he says that some of the visitors bring picture postcards into the church and "actually address them during the services."

Their offenses are ascribed to the American laxity in the proper observation of the Lord's day.

ASTOR CHILD MAY RECONCILE COUPLE

"Mamma Is So Unhappy,"
She Writes to Fa her;
Friends Expect it.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 19.—The friends of Colonel John Jacob Astor and Mrs. Ava Willing Astor, who were divorced last year, are filled with expectancy and hope over the possibility of a reconciliation that seems probable. The 11th daughter of the distinguished couple, Muriel Astor, 8 years old, is being pointed to as the peace messenger.

She makes her home with Mrs. Astor in accordance with the agreement entered into at the time of the separation and divorce, but writes to her father each week. The last of these letters is said to have been most pathetic and to have reflected all the sorrow that can come into a child's life where parents are estranged.

"MAMMA UNHAPPY."

"Mamma is so unhappy," Colonel Astor's little daughter wrote with childish frankness. The message was only a part of a sentence in a long letter, and the friends of the parents are wondering if the child's letter will be the first of a series of letters that will lead to a reconciliation of the divorced couple.

Colonel Astor evidently cherishes the letter, for he is known to be carrying it about with him and to have shown it to several of his most intimate friends. Mrs. Astor, it is said, does not yet know that the letter was written—least she was not acquainted with its contents. No one knows whether Colonel Astor has seen his daughter since she arrived this week for not.

Mrs. Astor returned from a visit with her mother in the last ten days and with little Muriel is spending the season at the cottage of her brother, Barton Willing. Colonel Astor also spends much of his time in Newport, when not on his yacht.

CHINA HAS EYE ON FOREIGN COIN

Regent Notifies Viceroy That Loans Are Indispensable in Railroad Development.

PEKING, Aug. 19.—Coincident with Tong Shao Yi's reappointment to power as president of the Board of Communications, the Regent, Prince Chun, has issued a secret edict notifying viceroys and governors that foreign loans are indispensable in the development of the imperial railway system, and instructing them to suppress the anti-foreign agitation.

This is construed as a striking demonstration of the regent's definite commitment to the policy of progress, especially regarding railway development. The appointment of Tong Shao Yi and his elevation of Shih Hsu Chang to the grand council are expected to be a most important step in the development of the Chow-Aigun project, which was originally evolved by Tong Shao Yi when he was governor of Moukden under Hsu as viceroy. Lu Lang is the prince who received the American fleet at Amoy. All these appointments are distinctly pro-American.

Senator Gordon Goes To Chicago to Play; Is Tired of Working

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Former United States Senator James Gordon of Mississippi has come to Chicago on a brief play day before engaging in the senatorial campaign in his state.

"It isn't that I feel the need of rest, but even a man as young as 77 years needs a little vacation when he is about to engage in a campaign for a second term," said the picturesque southerner, who was in the Mississippi legislature before most of the members of that body were born. He was seated in a box at a downtown theater when he made these remarks last evening.

"I need a little of this occasionally to rest up on," he said, with a weep of his hand toward the activity on the other side of the footlights. "The primaries are a year away and they already are engaged in the senatorial campaign," he said.

"I speak? Well, how am I going to keep away from it? I have been in politics all my life and although I have said time and again that I would be away out of it all this year, I know what the result will be. I'll be right back on the stump again."

'Guess Your Weight' To Be Heard No More At Busy Coney Island

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The New York commissioner of weights and measures has turned his attention to the industrious persons who "guess your weight" at Coney Island and the other shore resorts about the city. The commissioner made a personal inspection of a number of the scales at Coney Island last night and found them faulty.

"The scales are practically all 'fixed,'" he said afterward. "I weighed 175 pounds, when I was weighed on the Coney Island scales, my weight ranged anywhere from 150 to 180 pounds; in fact just the weight the operator had desired."

The commissioner said that the machines would have to go. Their inaccuracy is not the main reason, however. There have been many complaints from people who have had their pockets picked while being weighed, and the commissioner declares that the operator always runs his hands over a person's pockets to estimate their weight, but really to locate their pockets. He said that he had seen a man who had been picked for his pockets while being weighed, and that he had seen a man who had been picked for his pockets while being weighed.

Autos Deal Death to Two Gtiamites

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Two fatal automobile accidents occurred in New York during the last 24 hours. John Iris, a boy of 16, stopped from a street car platform in front of a touring car and his skull was fractured. He died in the street.

In a collision between an automobile and a runabout in the upper part of the city, Miss Grace House was instantly killed and two men were fatally injured.

Effects of Alcohol Told by Reformer

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—The feature of yesterday afternoon's session of the Congress of Reform, being held in this city under the auspices of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, was an address on the effects of alcohol by Dr. W. W. Washburn, resident physician of the State hospital for the insane at Stockton, who presented many facts bearing on the subject, drawn from his own experience.

Dr. Bering of this city urged the need of a State institution for the treatment of chronic alcoholic and drug habits, and a general discussion of temperance topics was participated in by the delegates.

ANNOUNCEMENTS AN EASY AND HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR.

Who does not know of the value of soft, glossy hair in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than sage and sulphur, if properly prepared. The Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, put up an ideal preparation of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. It is sold by all leading druggists for 50c, and $1.00 a bottle, and is sent direct by the manufacturers upon receipt of price.

TIE CAN ON TAIL; DOG DRIVEN MAD

Eleven Persons Injured by Canine and Bullets in New York.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—A squad of policemen is searching upper New York today for a white bull terrier which, suddenly went mad last night and after biting ten persons, dodged a shower of bullets and escaped. Besides the ten persons injured by the dog, a 9-year-old boy is in the hospital with a serious bullet wound. He was brought down by one of the hundreds of bullets fired at the infuriated animal.

The dog had been playing amiably with a crowd of children when a mischievous boy tried the ancient trick of tying a tin can to his tail.

When the dog objected, the children belabored him with sticks and stones. With a frightened look, the dog ran about twenty feet. Then he changed his mind and came back, baring his teeth against the children like a cyclone, knocking some of them down and snapping at everything human within reach. The children's screams brought frightened fathers and mothers to the windows and soon the pop of the fathers' revolvers added to the confusion. The marksmanship was all faulty, however, and even two policemen were unable to bring the dog down before he escaped down a side street.

A woman has just left the London Hospital with a new nose made from a flap of skin taken from her own forehead. The operation was rendered necessary on account of a rodent ulcer of many years' growth, which has gradually eaten away all the tissues of the nose. The operation, known as the Indian method, was designed by Lieutenant-Colonel K. H. Gan some months ago, but had been performed successfully in this country only two or three times. A racquet-shaped flap of skin about two inches in length and an inch and a quarter wide was extending upward from the bridge of the nose, the beginning of the handle of the racquet being the only point of attachment. The whole thickness of the nose was then carefully detached from the underlying bone, the flap being swung around on its attachment at the base of the nose, was made to cover the previously denuded nose area. The new nose was stitched into place at the sides, openings being left for the nostrils. The denuded space on the forehead was covered in with skin grafts. The patient, a woman of 60, who was three weeks in the hospital, left room well pleased with her artificial feature.

: Wedding Superstitions :

Though popular superstitions may lack reason or reasonable explanation, they must have an origin, and this has formed the basis of quite an interesting book by T. Sharper Knowlson.

The question of the wedding ring and why it should be placed on the fourth finger of the left hand have traces back to a writer in the British Apollo (1708). "There is nothing more in this," it is stated, "than that the custom was handed down to the present age from the practice of our ancestors, who found the left hand more convenient for such ornaments than the right in that it is ever less employed; for the same reason they chose the fourth finger, which is not only less used than either of the rest, but is more capable of preserving a ring from bruises, having this one quality peculiar to itself, that it cannot be so much injured in company with some other finger, whereas the rest may be singly stretched to their full length and great straightness."

The old-fashioned notion that a shoe should be kicked at a wedding is another thing. "The curious," to explain—

"It was in the sense of confirmation, sale or exchange that the Jews understood the removal and giving of a shoe or sandal. When the kinsman of a deceased man consented to waive his claim upon a parcel of land which his Naemi would in favor of Boaz, he 'drew off his shoe for this' was a testimony in Israel."

"In a different sense the removal of a shoe marks the winding up of negotiations among the laws and ordinances given to the book of Deuteronomy, and the widow who is refused marriage by her husband's surviving brother is directed to 'come unto him in the presence of the elders, and loose his shoe from off her foot,' thus asserting her independence and heaping upon him the blame for failure to comply with the law.

"When the Emperor Vladimir proposed marriage to the daughter of Reginar, he refused him with the words: 'I will not take off my shoe to a son of a slave.'"

"In Anglo-Saxon marriages the bridegroom delivered her shoe to the bride, who touched her to the head and in token of his authority."

Miss Jordan Is First Woman County Treasurer

Miss Gertrude Jordan has the novel distinction of being the first woman to be elected to the office of county treasurer in the United States. On the map of Nebraska will be found, in the northwest portion, a county bearing the name of "Cherry. With its great area of 6,000 square miles, it has been familiarly termed "the State of Cherry." Its present population is about 12,000. As in several other States in the Union, women have occasionally held the office of county superintendent of schools in Nebraska, but until Miss Jordan, of Valentine, the county seat of Cherry county, decided to run for the position of county treasurer, no woman had ever dreamed of running for a political office of this nature. Miss Jordan is a Republican and, though but 20 years of age, has already served for ten years as a deputy in the office of the county treasurer. Last year her superior resigned, and a Democrat was appointed to the position. In the August primaries Miss Jordan was nominated by the Republican local organization for the office of treasurer. Following the primaries and the campaign began in earnest and the young woman attended every public gathering possible, from picnic to auction sale, in order to extend her acquaintance. The result of her personal work was shown in the November election, where she won by a majority of 242 votes. The election, however, did not end her fight for the office. Early in January, having furnished the legal bond and qualified for the office, she went to the court

RENO, Aug. 19.—Gossip has received decidedly the worst of it in the case of the young woman in the case joined the faith, then the church, then chose to accompany the pastor to concerts and socials going to involve parson and petticoats in a local church. There was no license for whisperings among the congregation according to the verities of the ecclesiastical code. Let us see how the same authorities would be sufficient to warrant a word of caution to the clergyman from a man.

This summarizes the findings which have grown out of the whisperings from David H. Williams to Rev. Leslie M. Burwell of the Methodist Episcopal church, and against attention to Miss Valma Bradshaw, a young woman, as pretty a little milliner as ever trimmed a hat.

Williams has been found guilty of causing dissension in the church, spreading slander. He has been given the option of dismissal from the church as a minister, or a definite year of discipline. He has voiced a plea for the former, but in the meantime will appeal from the decision of the trial court.

The judge in the case was President J. E. Stubbs of Nevada University, and the jury were Arthur Hodge, C. M. White, Dr. Jacobson, L. A. Anderson and J. H. Kelling. The court sat through two nights and adjourned at one o'clock yesterday morning. Williams is the general manager of the Western Mail and Granite Company. He put up a stubborn defense through the attorney, J. L. Kennedy, of San Francisco. He complained that the church had been appointed by Dr. Burwell.

It was charged against Williams that he had spread stories about the pastor and Miss Bradshaw and had sought by fraud to obtain signature to a petition asking the church to be gone to San Francisco, where she is now said to be employed as a milliner.

Florence Nightingale and William Shore were cousins and were lovers. The English law forbids marriage of cousins, so they fled their faith and separated neither one ever to marry.

William Shore drifted to Fox Lake, Wis., where he lived many years, dying in 1868, and his remains are buried in Waushara cemetery in village.

Florence Nightingale awaited in her beautiful home in London supreme call to join her lover in death, which she has just answered. Her last words were: "I was married."

Romance Has Bitter Ending

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 19.—(Clarke M. Gavanan, until last year a resident of Berkeley, brought an annulment of marriage proceedings here yesterday against John W. Gavanan, and the hearing developed an unusual romance with a bitter ending. The girl told Judge Cole that she and Gavanan had known each other but five days, though they had been correspondents for a month, were married by Justice Gavanan and Cole and in December, 1917, she asserted that she was cruelly imposed upon in that Gavanan represented himself to be a mining man with large interests in Blair and Tomba and she soon found that instead he owned the most disreputable district of that section, and had himself an unsavory reputation. Gavanan then told her he had been divorced, and she found out that he was not divorced under the Nevada laws. She alleged also that he was a confirmed drunkard and an undesirable character generally. He disappeared. The court took the case under advisement.

Belasco was radiant and happy at the Hotel Marie Antoinette last night. "Yes, it's true," she admitted when asked if she was to marry. "I am."

The court found that the father's estate was divided into three parts: the residue of the estate after several small debts are paid. Another brother was cut out with a quarter interest in the residue half, the remainder being bequeathed to the two sons. The elder brother, and the son alleges that during her time in this service

Couldn't Keep House on Worthless Checks

RENO, Nev., Aug. 19.—Claiming that her husband squandered over gambling tables and gave her worthless checks when she asked for food and clothing, Mrs. Gertrude Harris, an attractive woman, yesterday morning secured a divorce from Daniel Harris of Oregon on the ground of non-support.

She testified that she married Harris at Stockton, Cal., on June 18, 1917, and quit shortly after their wedding they went to New Orleans. There he continued his gambling habit and made good money, but testified he was in the advertising business and made good money, but squandered nearly all of it in gambling. She then told how he left her in New Orleans and came back here where he had come to Oakland and how he gave her worthless checks for food and clothing money. She has been working since then and the money secured on such checks has been used for her support while the worthless ones have been cashed.

Cupid Outwits Three Daughters

Three married daughters, who were with her, stated that their attorneys failed to locate Henton and his whereabouts. She appeared Monday following the disappearance of the daughters who were married, first by a minister and then by a justice of the peace. She said she was married to Henton in 1906. Luckily for the aged lovers their marriage license, obtained in 1906, was still in the files of the county clerk. The license was good anywhere in the state. Mrs. Cook, the daughter-in-law, said that Henton had been living, could have been located, and that he was not dead. She said, "We will probably be able to find him. We will get his father had the marriage annulled. We will get his father had the marriage papers for him and have the marriage annulled if possible. We cannot support the woman and she surely cannot support him."

WILKES-BARRE, Pa.—Charging that occult and hypnotic influences were used to win her husband's love from her, Mrs. Maude E. Howell, wife of Charles E. Howell, a wealthy merchant of Pittston, commenced suit against Frederick C. Nicholson for $25,000 damages.

Mrs. Howell said she told her husband and made him believe things about her that resulted in her husband losing what love he had for her. There is no truth, she declares, in what Nichols told Howell, and she was only his slave. She said Nichols induced Howell to believe the stories.

At the same time she started the suit she had Howell arrested on the charge of assault and battery, threats and non-support. He gave bail.

Mrs. Howell is Howell's third wife. He married her two years ago, soon after she left her first husband and wife.

COUNTY CONVENTION WILL NOT BE HELD TONIGHT

Men Who Claim to Be Elected Delegates
Will Gather Despite Fact That Meeting Is Delayed

The Republican county convention, which was called for tonight, will not be held at that time. The exact date when the body will assemble for the purpose of building a platform and electing another county committee for the purpose of conducting the present campaign will have to be determined later.

This is because neither the members of the present Republican county central committee nor the Republicans at large, at the primaries, from the several assembly districts Tuesday last, know who have been elected as delegates. Regardless of this, however, delegates will meet in A. F. Leach's office and adjourn until the desired information can be obtained.

This lack of information is due to the fact that the county clerk has not, as yet, certified to the election of any delegates, for the reason that the names of such delegates are the very last on the ballots and will, as a consequence, be the last which will be canvassed by the board of supervisors in the work of canvassing which is now in progress.

WHO WAS ELECTED?

It is considered more important to ascertain who has been elected in the various official positions throughout the county than it is to ascertain who are to serve as delegates to the coming county convention. This is the view taken of the situation by the supervisors, especially in view of the fact that the Republican county central committee, without considering the unusual condition in determining officially the result of the late primary, imposed by the present primary law, called the convention to be held within three days after the holding of the primary, a few hours only, after some of the returns from precincts had been returned and when there was not the slightest opportunity afforded for ascertaining the result of the vote.

As the convention cannot be held until the delegates elected to the same are certified to by the county clerk, the county committee will assume that there have been several of the assembly district delegates elected and will insist on a meeting of these delegates tonight at the Republican county convention, and then taking an adjournment until after the real delegates shall have been certified by the county clerk.

SURPRISE IS EXPRESSED.

There has been some surprise expressed that the Republican county central committee should have been so hasty in the calling of the convention, more especially when there were several days between the time of the call and the date under the law in which the convention has to be held. Those who have given expression to this surprise, declare that there was nothing to be gained by rushing ahead in the manner indicated, as it was apparent, even before the primaries, that there would not be the superabundance of tickets in the field that had been expected by some of the enthusiastic leaders in both factions of the party.

In view of the fact that the real delegates to the convention cannot be ascertained for a couple of days, for the reason that nearly 15 minutes are expended in canvassing one precinct by the board of supervisors, a representative of THE TRIBUNE attempted to ascertain which of the Republican candidates for delegates in the several assembly districts, with the result that the following had in all probability been elected, though it is possible that there may have been made a mistake in some of the districts:

PROBABLE SELECTIONS.

Fifty-sixth District—H. E. Bruner, W. McDonald, W. D. Patterson, C. H. Priest, J. J. Santos, Henry Gansberger, F. H. Williams.
Fifty-seventh District—Charles Neal, L. W. Weinmann, T. H. Haskins, Henry Muller, J. L. Stachler, R. V. Krumb, J. J. Santos.
Forty-eighth District—D. S. Alingworth, James T. Brennan, George E. Cox, Dan A. O'Brien, Charles J. Stulz, L. Tobriner.
Forty-ninth District—John F. Muller, R. Y. Burke, William S. Baxter, Martin J. Hanley, E. J. Carey, Carl Chisholm.
Fiftieth District—A. C. Calden, S. L. Hunsford, M. D. Mehrmann, A.

H. Elliot, A. H. Reed, C. E. Shook, C. M. Orr, Guy C. Earl, J. W. Bayless, Frank M. Percolla, J. W. Stinson, Clarence Crowell.
Fifty-first District—C. J. Daly, J. W. Evans, W. A. Dow, H. S. Anderson, W. H. Graham, L. H. Schuch, A. H. Merritt, P. C. Fredericksen, Joseph Damm, David L. Bremer.
Fifty-second District—Sidney H. Wilson, J. H. Mahan, Dr. S. Kelly, Charles Gross, W. J. Motimer, Arthur Arlett, Frank Soule, W. E. Peterson, J. Arthur Ellison, H. D. Irwin, B. J. Bither, Oscar T. Barber, C. W. Peck, Franklin P. Tutting, M. Standish, George W. Nicolson.

With the exception of the names in the forty-seventh district which are those of the representatives of the Regular Republican Club in Alameda, all the others are the names on the tickets suggested by the representatives on the Republican county central committee from the several assembly districts in the county.

CONVENTION'S CHAIRMAN.

It is understood that, on this showing, there are combinations formed for the determination as to who will be the chairman of the convention, who shall be appointed on the committee on platform and who shall compare the coming Republican county central committee, who are to manage the present campaign.

The framing of a platform for the candidates after an election is a novelty under the new primary law and the question has been raised as to how a candidate who has been nominated can be bound by a set of principles to which he had not previously subscribed. There has also been asked the question as to how candidates, not yet thought of, but who may be elected at the November election, can be held responsible for failing to support a platform with the making of which they did not have anything to do.

SEEKING SCHOOLS FOR HOUSEWIVES

Mrs. Ella Flagg Young Would Educate Girls in the Kitchen.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—More kitchens are needed in Chicago, not to feed the masses, but in which to educate the classes of girls who in a few years will be the housewives of the city. At a meeting of the board of education today, Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, superintendent of schools, will ask the committee to recommend to the board that it should be installed in the schools where household arts are to be taught.

There are approximately 200 of the schools, and about 75 kitchens already are equipped. This means about 175 new ones, and when they are built gymnasiums probably will be installed at the same time, at an average cost for both kitchen and gymnasium of a trifle more than $1,000.

Mrs. Young had a conference yesterday with the chairman of the building and grounds committee, and it was agreed to send a communication on the subject to the committee today.

TEN MILES OF CANAL OPENED

Atlantic Entrance Now Cleared for Good Distance Inland.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Five and a half miles of the Panama canal at the Atlantic entrance were opened to navigation for the sand and rock fleet of the Atlantic division last week, according to the issue of the Canal Record, which reached this city today. This section, added to the five miles of the Pacific entrance, which is open to vessels of all kinds, brings the total of the canal now in actual use up to ten and a half miles.

The division just opened is not completed but it has a channel 15 feet deep at its shallowest point and a width of 100 feet at its narrowest point. The dredges are constantly working on this part, broadening and deepening it to the full width of 500 feet and the full depth of 45 feet.

The part just opened does away with the long detour via the old French canal, which it was necessary for the bulk and general ships to make in hauling their cargoes from Porto Bello and Nembo de Dios to Gatun.

MINING CONGRESS WANTS NEW LAWS

Say Public Is Entitled to Facts Regarding the Mining Industry.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 19.—More stringent laws against misrepresentation of mining properties for the purpose of sale and a law requiring that geological statistics be compiled and kept on file for prospective buyers of mining stocks or property, were the chief recommendations made at a meeting of the Colorado Chapter of the American Mining Congress held here last night. The mining men take the stand that a law should be passed making misrepresentation of stock for purposes of sale a separate offense and punishment as such. They hold that the purchasing public is entitled to the facts regarding the mining industry, and that the only way to obtain this is to have a law requiring the compilation of geological statistics and that they should be filed at the State capital.

Suggestions were also offered that the various branches of the mining industry, such as coal, petroleum and metal, be affiliated in order to carry on the work along the same lines, and for mutual benefit.

Captain Petersen Thanks the Professional Chauffeurs' Association.

Prompted by a spirit of civil pride, the members of the Professional Chauffeurs' Association of Oakland will co-operate with the Oakland police department in prosecuting all the violators of the city and State laws. GANG OF RIOTERS ATTACKS OFFICER

Policeman Severely Beaten by Troughs in Early Morning Fight.

It required a posse of five police to quell a riot participated in by a score of newsboys and to rescue Pat O'Brien Holmberg from the gang that had attacked him. The boys, ranging from 13 to 25 years, had been celebrating an anniversary of the theatrical Mord Gans last night, and created a disturbance at 140 this morning at Eighth and Broadway. While attempting to arrest leaders of the riot, Holmberg was attacked and forced to engage in a street fight from which he emerged with a blackened eye, his throat swollen and a scratch on the cheek of one of his opponents, and his right hand lacerated.

Two of the newsboys had to be carried to the Receiving Hospital after the riot.

FOUR ARRESTED.
As a result of the midnight riot, the following are under arrest:
Jerry Driscoll, charged with being drunk and battery.
Scotty De Lauder, charged with drunkenness and resisting an officer.
Rov Dillard, charged with drunkenness and interfering with an officer.
Ralph Lavagrin, same charge.
A number of newsboys and route inspectors, who had assisted in the theatrical parade, attended to the celebration following, and partook to freely of the heart-cheering glasses of king beverage. At 1:40 this morning they aroused the slumbers in Broadway lodging houses by storming down the street, singing, dancing and shouting.

At Broadway and Eighth the carousal reached its height, and Patrolman Holmberg attempted to interfere. He ordered the crowd to disperse and tried to place Jerry Driscoll under arrest.

ATTACK OFFICER.

Then the attack upon the officer started. A call was sent to the central police station by residents of the neighborhood, and Inspector C. H. Beck and a posse of police to his rescue. Holmberg, the patrolman consisting of Acting Sergeant Sill, Patrolmen Shannon, Thorberg and Jones, De Lauder and Driscoll, who had been hurt in the melee, were taken to the Receiving Hospital after being attended by the physicians were arrested later. They appeared before Judge Smith this morning. Lin Church appearing for the newsboys. The case was set over to Monday to plead.

SUICIDE LETTER PROVES A HOAX

Actor Said to Have Been in Rooms While the Police Looked for Him.

All search has been abandoned for the love-sick young actor, Forrest Page, who is said to have left a note under a rock at Harrison street wharf yesterday telling of his intention to jump into the estuary because of the alleged burning of his affections by Miss Helen Hoerst. The police declare they have learned, upon investigation, that the fatal note was all a hoax, and at the time a search was being made for the body of the youth in the waters of the estuary the young man was happily enjoying his job in his room at the Lador apartments, 1063 1/2 Broadway.

GIRL IS INCI NSED.

Miss Hoerst, who is the daughter of Edward Hoerst of San Leandro, and who is but 18 years old, is so much incensed over the notoriety the sentimental actor has caused, inasmuch as she states the man is almost an entire stranger to her. "It's too bad he should carry out his intentions," she exclaimed. "Why, the man must be crazy to save a note saying he intended to die for love of me. I hardly know him at all and certainly have no love for him."

Some little time after the note telling of Page's intentions has been found, Miss Lottie Allen, a friend of his brother, who lives at 424 Third-street, telephoned to the home of Miss Mary E. Woods, grandmother of Miss Hoerst, telling her of the youth's affair. Miss Page has been living with a grandmother at 2007 Essex street, Berkeley.

CADETS SUFFER FOR MILK PUNCH

President's Ruling Cuts Four Men Off From Pleasures for Year.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Aug. 19.—One of the severest disciplines ever administered at West Point, is the lot of four cadets all members of the first or senior class at the military academy, who have been on trial for several weeks before a general courtmartial charged with drinking a milk punch. The four cadets are Wilfrid Blount of Maryland, Charles L. Byrne of Washington, D. C., Harry James Keely of Illinois, and Bethel Wood Simpson of Michigan. Blount and Byrne are sons of retired officers, while Simpson's father is Major Wendell L. Simpson, who is on duty in this city. Colonel Byrne, the father of the fourth, is an ex-surgeon general of the Department of the East, stationed at Governors Island.

CADETS GUILTY.

The cadets were found guilty by the courtmartial and their dismissal recommended but President Taft has commuted this sentence to what is regarded as a most rigorous penalty. Until March 31, 1911, they are to be confined to the barracks and on each Wednesday and Saturday during that time, must spend their afternoons parading the area, "armed and equipped." As a result none of them will see a football game during the coming season, nor will they be allowed to attend any hops or other social functions.

The recipe for the punch was two quarts of milk, a pint of whisky, two lemons, half a cup of sugar, two lemons and the skin of one orange.

EVADES CAPTORS; CAUGHT IN NORTH

George L. Price Jailed on the Charge of Practising Fraud.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—After twice evading his captors, following a previous arrest, George L. Price was recaptured in Portland, Ore., last night on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, on the complaint of W. W. Cooley, sales manager of the Borroughs Adding Machine Company of San Francisco. Price was a few hours later indicted on a similar charge by the grand jury in this city.

Though the indictment was only on one count, that of obtaining from M. Emanuel, western agent of the Sebring Battery Company, the sum of $100 on false pretenses, it is believed that the total amount of his alleged San Francisco operations will amount to almost $25,000.

Locksmith Advertises His Wares a la Thief And Goes to Prison

YONKERS, N. Y., Aug. 19.—An enterprising Yonkers locksmith is under arrest here as a result of his unique method of advertising his wares. He claims that all ordinary bars and bolts are worthless in the face of a skillful lock-picker and has been attempting to introduce a device of his own which he said protected a house adequately.

His method of drumming up business was to go to a house, deftly turn a lock and, entering, take the surprised housekeeper on the arm and ask her if she did not think she ought to have a real lock on the door. Numerous complaints reached the police and he was arrested.

Lake Shipments Show Big Growth for Year

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Commercial movements on the Great Lakes during June last and also during the six months ending with June, as measured by the volume of shipments between domestic lake ports, show large gains over similar figures for corresponding periods in previous years, including 1907, a favorable year in the history of the lake commerce.

According to figures prepared by the bureau of statistics, the total June shipments amounted to 13,003,416 gross tons, exceeding those of June, 1907, by 16 percent and those of June last year by 23 percent. The six months' shipments showed a similar gain.

The large gain is attributed to the heavier traffic in iron ore in the Lake Superior producing region the monthly total for the first time having passed the 1,000,000-ton mark.

Railroads to Hide the Drinking Cup

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—As a result of the agitation against common drinking cups, travelers on Wisconsin trains will discover after September 1 that the railroads no longer furnish them. Orders have gone out from general offices of all roads which run into that State that trainmen shall put the public drinking cups, now supplied for the benefit of a thirsty passenger, in hiding when they cross the State line and not to take them out again until another State is reached.

The new system is the result of a rule promulgated by the Wisconsin State Board of Health, which holds that common drinking cups are dangerous and communicate infectious diseases. There is one bad habit that most of us are addicted to. We talk too much.

MINING INTERESTS FIGHT BIG BATTLE

Comstock Companies Oust the Pump Superintendent After Exciting Meeting.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—The Push street optimists, who ever in dream that the glory of the Comstock days are to "come back," were all of a stir yesterday over a meeting in the office of the Comstock Pumping Association. In the room, which was crowded with the most interested parties, and there was enacted a scene in the great problem play, "Shall the Comstock Be Abandoned?"

For some time the interests of E. R. Sturges of Scranton, Pa., have controlled the Comstock Pumping Association. George Sturges, a son, was in control of the works. It was complained that he was such a Sabbatarian that he would not work the men on Sunday, though the water worked all the time, and that he lectured the pumpers who came out of the hot water into the snow because they took a glass of grog against the cold.

APPOINTED NEW ENGINEER.

In any event, the Barney Bauch interest, provided along by Franklin Leonard & Son, who control the Suto tunnel, decided on a change, and yesterday they voted to put in charge of those pumps George T. Burke, a New York engineer, who has had control of the Catskill water supply for the great metropolis.

At the same time the Ward Shaft Pumping Association went out of business and was merged with the other association, thus dropping Leon M. Hall, the Morrow representative, out of a job.

Behind all the squabble looms the Hammond-De Sabia power interests that have kept the Comstock alive as a client for their electric lights. There were hints that the big power people might let the Comstock fill with water and call the whole "a dream of things that were."

COMMISSION TELLS OF PLAYGROUNDS

San Francisco Supervisors Hear Report of Secretary Hickey.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—At a meeting of the supervisors yesterday Secretary Joseph H. Hickey of the playground commission submitted his annual report. The fiscal year closing June 30 was marked by the acquisition of the city's two recreation grounds set apart for children. The cost of the North Beach playground is reported to have been $12,524, and that of the South Side $13,672. Work upon each aggregated respectively $2546 and $1879.

The total appropriation for the commission of $35,000 was increased by a $2322 surplus from the previous year. The year ended with a balance of $261.

From all sections of the city petitions for playgrounds have been presented to the commission. The Mission district, particularly, which is now one of the most thickly settled neighborhoods in the city, is sadly in need of playgrounds.

It was intimated by the playground commission yesterday that a special meeting of the South Side playground will probably be opened to the public Saturday, September 3.

Coughing Autos Disturb the Slumbers Of J. D. Rockefeller

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Coughing automobiles disturb the slumbers of John D. Rockefeller and he wants something done about it. Bedford Run, which cuts through the Rockefeller estate, and is the main highway for automobile traffic between this place and Pocantico Hills, has a steep grade, and inconsiderate chauffeurs, burning up the gasoline that Mr. Rockefeller's refineries distill, have a habit of cutting out the muffler and opening the throttle on the stiff ones. Hence the nightly coughings and barkings.

A new sign now stands at the junction of Bedford Run and Weber avenue, directing automobiles to take the lower and more remote road, but the chauffeurs are proverbially heedless. To make the warning effective, Mr. Rockefeller will have to put the power of both the Pocantico village board and the Tarrytown town board behind it. He has already made overtures in that direction, but thus far both boards seem inclined to keep out of their principal neighbor's affairs to whomsoever wishes to use it.

Petaluma Man Finds Gold in Back Yard

PETALUMA, Aug. 19.—P. B. Engle, who resides in the western part of this city, has found a well-defined ledge of gold on his property and has taken the necessary steps under the mining laws to protect his claim. Mr. Engle is an expert miner, and after his discovery he began prospecting, with the result that he found ore that assayed over $51 per ton. Specimens which were taken from another prospect hole assayed nearly $6. It was while digging a well that Mr. Engle made the discovery.

PASTORS MAY USE PIPES IN THE OPEN, SAY CHURCHMEN

STONY BROOK, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Preachers in attendance at the Bible conference held on the camp meeting grounds here every August may hereafter smoke all they like and they will not have to go behind the tents or bungalows to enjoy their pipe or cigar.

"The platform" adopted by the committee in charge of the meeting, declares that Stony Brook is going to stand for old-fashioned gospel, but that it is not going to waste energy fussing over small matters. Among other things it is ruled that the ministers may smoke if they wish, and may do it right out in the open, too.

S.S.S. FOR SUMMER SKIN DISEASES

Smooth, healthy skins are a rarity in Summer. Most persons are annoyed with pimples, boils, rashes or eruptions, while others suffer more severely with Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, or some kindred skin disease. All skin affections come from humors and acids in the circulation. The blood, as it circulates through the system, deposits these acids and humors in the sensitive membranous flesh which lies just beneath the outer skin or tissue covering the body. This acid matter causes inflammation and a discharge which breaks through the delicate cuticle, and skin diseases are the result. To cure any skin trouble the blood must be freed from all acids and humors, and for this purpose nothing equals S. S. S. This great blood purifier goes down into the circulation and completely removes every particle of impurity, enriches the blood and in this way permanently cures skin diseases. S. S. S. cures, because it purifies the blood and allows it to nourish, soothe, and soften the skin instead of irritating it with fiery acids and humors. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice free. TRIPLE PLAY BY CAMERON AND WARES SAVES THE GAME UP NORTH FOR OAKS

LOCALS ARE PLAYING BASE BALL LIKE MAJOR LEAGUERS
All the Pitchers Working Well, Men Hitting and Fielding Excellently; Gossip of the Game and Players

By BERT LOWRY.

Those fighting, tearing-in-all-the-time Oaks once again showed their class at Beaverland yesterday and when the day was over had the long end of a 2-to-0 score.

It was William Harkins that did the real work for the locals and from the reports of the game sent down from the north "that boy has come back." This is certainly glad news to the followers of the Wolverines, for it means that Oakland has a pitching staff that is equal to any team in the league, having not even the Beavers, and we have to admit that McCredie has some pitchers in his payroll.

Another feature of the Oaks' playing is the never-say-die spirit that runs through the team. It is a "right at 'em" all the time. This is what the fans like, and it is one of the reasons that has made Oakland the hardest club in all the league to beat.

Next week the boys come home, and even if they only win another game out of the three to be played up north it will be a remarkable feat. The Oaks' club that can go into the stronghold of the Beavers and break even with them in a series is to be considered at all times.

For the second time this season the Oaks pulled off a triple play during a game, and that triple play saved the day for Oakland. There were two runners on the bases when Fisher, a wicked pitcher, at any time, came to the bat and slammed one toward right field on a six-a-minute clip, and a hit to right field, and he quickly fielded, is good for three bases at least. Cameron, who has shown much improvement in his hitting, with one air after the ball, grabbed it with one hand, touched the man that had left first, and then whipped the ball to Wares, who showed rare judgment by running over to second as soon as the hit was made.

Oakland is getting baseball mad and the accommodations of the fans has been a serious problem to President Walter. It has been overcome, though, by the addition of new bleachers in right field that will make it possible to seat another 150 people at least.

Happy Hogan certainly has an air about him. Last week they played excellent ball against the Oaks nearly every day, even if they were a little out of line. This week they started off like real live champions and then blew up.

Really, Hogan's men had no right to lose yesterday. They were playing better than the Oaks, and they were hitting better than the Oaks. They were playing better than the Oaks, and they were hitting better than the Oaks. They were playing better than the Oaks, and they were hitting better than the Oaks.

A funny one happened to a bunch of San Francisco fans yesterday afternoon. Twenty to twenty-five of them were standing at Third and Market, ready to come over to the game, when one of them spotted a sign on a Valencia-street car saying that there was a ball game at Recreation Park. Soon another car came along reading this way and then another, so the fans concluded that the game was to be in San Francisco instead of on this side of the bay. Imagine their feelings when they reached the ball park and found it closed tight as a drum.

Carlisle landed on one of Henley's shots in the first inning, and the homer over the right-field fence. It was a hard-hit ball and went over the fence fully twenty feet. Carlisle was swinging at it, for it was waist high, and he already had three balls and "no strike" on him.

Henley's swat was to the other field, and he had the fence back ten feet. That is the luck of the game, and it counted just as much as a home run. A hit-in fact, more, for there was a man on a base when the hit happened.

San Francisco had a formidable outfield yesterday afternoon, and Ewing can't find a hole in it. The Sox are supplied with garden men. Lewis was moved over to left in Dodge's place and he is excellent. The track is much better, said of Madden in center and Melchior in right, for each got his hands on some pretty hard catches and cut off not a few base hits.

Tommy Tennant had a little run-in with a bunch of fans in one of the boxes during the progress of the game and the

First Baseman Don Cameron of the Oaks. It was his clever handling of the ball in which he pulled off a triple play at Portland with Wares yesterday that saved the games to the locals. Cameron is also a handy man with the stick and has helped the Oaks win many games with his well placed bingles.

HOME RUN BY GAG. HENLEY WINS

CLOSE GAME FOR EWING'S MEN

Contest Becomes Certainly When the Elongated Pitcher Sends Ball Out of the Lot With Man on First Base

SAN FRANCISCO was stepping up a little toward the leaders out at Freeman's Park yesterday afternoon at the expense of the Hooligans and we might tarry and add that Jimmy Luck perched on the Seal's bench and made it possible for Ewing's men to grab the long end of the 6-to-4 score. Happy Hogan was dead anxious to land that game and sent his $1000 bounty, "Kit" Carson, to the hill to do the honors and it wasn't his fault that he lost out, for the men behind him in most instances played Class "Z" league baseball. This was particularly noticeable in the second inning when a fizzle gave the Seals a tally and again in the third when three fizzes gave Ewing's men another spot on the scoreboard.

HOOLOGANS SCORE IN THE OPENING ROUND.
Carlisle was the first man to start the ball to rolling, and after he had received three and two from the umpire the center-fielder hit the ball to right field, being really and truly a home run.

San Francisco made this mistake in their half of the second, and it was Melchior that batted, but he was not charged with a home run, for he hit the ball to right field, and the ball was caught by the center-fielder. The ball was caught by the center-fielder, and the ball was caught by the center-fielder.

BOTH TEAMS SCORE IN THE THIRD INNING.
Hogan, leading off for Vernon in the third inning, hit a home run, and the Seals made it two in the hole when Carlisle took his place at the bat.

SEALS FORCE AHEAD IN THE FOURTH INNING.
Vitt started a rough house for the Seals in the fourth with a two-bagger to left, moving up to third base when Berry Carroll hit a home run, and he took it nicely on the scoop. Vitt took a chance and hotfooted for home. Burrell aimed at Hogan to catch Oscar, but his aim was bad and Vitt got in the run column.

HENLEY SAVED HIS GAME IN THE SIXTH INNING.
After Carlisle, Stovall and N-Brashear had gone out in the sixth through Burrell's lead on the bases, Henley batted and Lewis the Seals took a swing at the ball, and with the aid of the horse shoe and Jimmy Luck sewed up the game.

PORTLAND, Aug. 19.—Those fighting, tearing in all the time Oaks gave the Beavers a lot of trouble yesterday, and are now but half a game behind the leaders.

Portland from start to finish was a hard-fought one, and the excellent pitching of Harkins and Boice is what kept the Oaks from winning a fast triple play.

Portland had cleaned up four triple plays when Olson opened the first inning by hitting a home run, and then when Cameron and Harkins did an out, and when Cameron and Harkins did an out, and when Cameron and Harkins did an out.

Portland had no other show. Harkins was the star of the day, and he pitched a wonderful game for the Oaks.

JIMMY COFFROTH SIGNS UP FRANKIE BURNS AND MORAN

Popular Young Oaklander Will Box English Champion Ten Rounds in San Francisco on Night of September 6th

By EEDIE SMITH.

JIMMY COFFROTH is confident that he will have a well staged pavilion on Tuesday night when he stages the Owen Moran-Frankie Burns scrap, and for that reason he is making preparations to handle the fans in his usual first-class manner. The promoter will probably not advertise the contest as has been the habit of the San Francisco press during the past few years, for it is not a serious of bringing the affair too forcibly to the attention of the knoekers of the game. It is not that he is doing any wrong that this will be the fact, for he certainly is not, but it is better that some fool reformist believes that his boy will have a lot of publicity by attacking the contest. Half of the knoekers put their hammers to work for the publicity they gain by so doing, and the bigger an event is made the more liable one of them is to start something. That Frankie Burns lost some of the press in the boxing battle he put up with One Round Hogan there can be no denying, and he will not have any backers in this contest as would have been the case had he won from the four-round champion. The men who have followed the little local man in his contests, however, and who are most interested in his future, are casting aside the Hogan battle and figuring their dope out on the Jimmy Coffroth contest held in the East. Moran always has a hard time in getting away with Baldwin, and in one of their meetings Baldwin is credited with having had the better of the bout. Jack Perkins, manager of Burns, claims that Frankie simply smothered Baldwin in their six-round contest and for that reason the manager believes that his boy will have a great success in the coming fight. Burns made with Hogan, while not up to the expectations of his friends, should not be held too much against the youngster, for in this contest he was informed so often that his entire future depended on the result, and so much importance was attached to his showing that he became too timid, and when he started his anxiety took possession of his better judgment, and for the first half of the contest he did not get settled down to his work. Moran is training at Hayes Springs for the contest and will remain there until a few days prior to the date for the battle.

The three six-round contests that have been arranged for the first night of boxing on this side of the bay since the Jeffries-Johnson disaster, and which are to be staged at the West Oakland Club next Wednesday night, are as follows: Johnnie Frayne vs. Jimmy Filton, Willie O'Neil vs. Charlie Webber and Frankie Edwards vs. Jim Horner. Besides the six-round matches the material for a four-round preliminary will be made up of three four-round preliminaries. Johnnie Frayne will make his first start since his defeat at the hands of Lew Powell in the contest with Filton.

At the time Frayne met Powell he was suffering from rheumatism and at one time it was expected that he might have to call the match off. When he was beaten by Powell he was told that he was to fight him again, and he started to work it out of his system. At this time the little fellow claims the best of health and fully expects to be right in line for the top notchers within the next few months. The modest start Frayne is making is to his credit and proves that he wants to show the fans he is right in line for a making demands for big matches. Frayne and Burns are boxing together at Al White's place at the ball grounds.

Manager Tommy Walsh of the Crescent City Club of New Orleans wants "One Round" Hogan to box Ray Brown twenty rounds at the Southern city. The manager for Hogan, is considering the offer, but he has little chance of his accepting as Hogan is a great card in the four-round game in San Francisco and is not ready to take a fling at the long distance contests as yet. Hogan has become some card since his win from Burns, and many of the Eastern clubs want his services.

Hugh McIntosh, the Australian promoter, seems bent on clearing the ranks of American pugilists of his best cards for he has offered about all the best men we have before three fights in Australia. The foxy promoter ties his men up for three bouts before they start for the Antipodes, and in this way he keeps them from being used by him, if some one else would offer a few dollars more for their services. Antonio LeGrave is the latest to receive an offer for three fights across the water.

The Oakland Whelmen will hold forth with a boxing show at the Piedmont Casino on Tuesday night, the first two weeks of September. Matchmaker "Mel" Moffitt is already scouting about on a still hunt for a good card and there is not the slightest doubt but that the pavilion will be reopened with a card that will prove attractive.

CENTRAL LEAGUE GETS $25,000 FOR PLAYERS
SOUTH BEND, Ind., Aug. 19.—Six Central League clubs will this year realize from $20,000 to $25,000 from the sale of players to the higher class organizations. Of this amount South Bend has already received $4,000 from Pittsburgh for Shortstop McCarthy and Outfielder Carey and expects to secure at least $3,000 more through the sale or drafting of Catcher Wells, Outfielder Wolschke and Klov, pitcher Lindsey and Second Baseman Koehler.
Next to South Bend, Dayton has the most profitable aggregation. Manager Knott has disposed of Catcher Martin to Pittsburgh for $1,500 and Shortstop Starke to Brooklyn for $2,000. Knott also expects to lose Second Baseman Nee and Pitcher Jones by draft.
Terre Haute has sold Pitcher Nantz and Alberto to the St. Louis Nationals for $1,000 each and obtained $1,000 from Outfielder Whalsh, who has joined Cincinnati.
Pittsburg is expected to buy First Baseman Somers or at least draft him and an American association club will probably take Third Baseman O'Donnell of the home club.
Pittsburg sold Pitcher Covington to Detroit for $1,000 and will get the draft price for Outfielder Lajuna.
Fort Wayne expects to lose Pitcher Robertson and Miller by draft and will return First Baseman Galter to Detroit.

GREAT AIRSHIP TO SOAR OVER SAN FRANCISCO BAY

Millionaires Building Zeppelin-Like Craft to Navigate Upper Roads; First Flight Next Month

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—San Francisco's millionaires have caught the aviation fever, and the prospect of a great feat of the air, in which Eugene E. Salla, W. P. Hannon, John H. Hannon, Leon Sloss, Joseph Sloss, Dr. John Gailway, Frederick Tillman and other men of wealth will be seen attempting the atmospheric feat of navigating the upper roads, is now being discussed in the clubs and other places where they gather.

The big dirigible airship is being built out in the Mission, and although much secrecy has been connected with its construction, it became known yesterday that a coterie of millionaires is financing the work of the inventor.

SAN FRANCISCAN IS INVENTOR.

The airship has been under construction for more than three months, and its inventor and builder is W. T. Murray, who lives at the Hotel Hutton in Pine street. The airship has been promoted by J. M. Duke, whose offices are in the Metropolitan bank building.

Twenty subscribers have contributed $500 each for the building of the airship, and if the invention realizes the hopes of Murray and the others, it is expected to mark an epoch in aviation.

The millionaires whose money is building the airship, declare that they have gone into the project entirely in a spirit of scientific interest. It is not a commercial scheme, they say.

EXPECT TO OUTDO ZEPPELIN.

They believe that Murray has invented a dirigible aircraft that will equal and may surpass the remarkable mechanical production of Count Zeppelin of Germany, one of whose airships has been running on a regular schedule from Düsseldorf to Friedrichshafen 300 miles. Whether Murray will succeed in the project or not, it is expected that the airship will eventually result in the establishment of air line transportation between San Francisco and Los Angeles, as he now hopes, are problems that will be settled before the winter rains begin to fall.

FIRST FLIGHT NEXT MONTH.

Murray's airship is now in the machine shops of J. A. Gray & Co. at Eighteenth and Bryant streets. The greater part of the work of construction has been completed, and the huge machine will be moved over the railroad on flatcars to Ingleside on Sunday. It will be finished there and the first experimental flight will be made near the end of September or in the early part of October.

AVIATORS NEAR COLLISION.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Aug. 19.—By retaining their presence of mind while in the air, both James Fleming, the parachute jumper, and Ralph Johnstone, one of the Wright aviators, narrowly averted catastrophe yesterday that came thrillingly near resulting in a loss of life or the field at Interlaken.

Fleming, who had made no ascension in his hot air balloon since he went up with Benny Prinz last Friday, when Prinz dropped 800 feet to his death, almost crashed into the aeroplane driven by Hoxsey at an altitude of 1600 feet. Later Fleming was forced to land with his balloon in a swamp near Culterville, and the parachute failed to cut a way from the balloon.

Johnstone, early in the afternoon jumped his jumping bicycle on the fence surrounding the field in order to prevent it from falling upon the crowded autos in the congested parking enclosure. Johnstone was uninjured, but his aeroplane was wrecked.

PLANES FAIL TO WORK.

He had some difficulty with his machine, the elevating planes failing to work. At the altitude he was flying he had the alternative of dropping among the hundreds of automobiles at the edge of the grounds or smashing into the clump of trees which constituted Brooking's mishap last week. Making his decision instantly he shut off his power, dropping toward the earth. He smashed head-on into the fence. Several ribs of the left wing were broken and the right wing collapsed. The occupants of the automobile jammed against the fence fled in panic.

Hudson, the high explosive expert and inventor, was an interested spectator on the field. He motored from his home at Lake Hopkins.

"To my mind," said Maxm, "the successful aeroplane gun to be carried aloft must not weigh more than 100 pounds and should be able to carry 100 one-pound shells. Such a gun could be devised and can be equipped with a great glycerine buffer so as to break the effect of the recoil on the aeroplane."

RUSSIAN BANK STRONG RESERVES

The Gold Holding of Half-year Shows Decline in Those of the Bank of France.

LONDON, Aug. 19.—The principal points of the half-yearly statistics showing the gold holdings of the leading European banks of issue as compared with the position on June 30 of last year are the strengthening of the Bank of Russia's metallic reserves and a decline in those of the Bank of France. The continued absorption by the latter of the precious metal has often been referred to in this country as an menace to the London money market, which in past times of stress has had to borrow heavily from France to replenish a shortage of supply.

The recent advance in European exchange has caused the bulk of the gold coming into the open market to be taken on Continental account. This, coupled with a call of $1,700,000 in gold for export to America, justifies the belief that the present English bank rate of 3 per cent will not be lowered throughout the summer and may last through the fall. Financiers welcome this indication of stable monetary conditions, which shows that the American demand is kept up to a moderate level.

RUSSIA ACCUMULATES.

Russia's recuperative power since her war with Japan is illustrated by the gold stock accumulated in the vaults of the State Bank of St. Petersburg at the end of June last, when it stood at $613,410,000, an increase of $89,545,000 compared with June, 1909, while the balance sheet outside Russia also increased by $21,810,000.

The Bank of France accounts on the other hand show a decline of $68,974,000 gold, to $689,378,400. France nevertheless continues to hold the premier position in Europe in the matter of gold reserves and also in silver, of which the Bank of France possesses $176,398,200. The Bank of England improved its gold position in the year ended June 30 by $6,615,745, to $211,981,755, and the Imperial Bank of Germany shows a small decrease on balance; its stock of gold having declined $7,619,350, to $183,550,000, while its silver has risen $7,144,750, to $75,148,500.

SPAIN'S INCREASE.

In the other European countries the differences, with one exception, are not very large. The Bank of Spain has slightly increased its gold holdings to $81,200,000, while its stock of silver has declined $5,475,000, to $150,500,000. Spain has the second largest stock of silver in Europe.

The three Italian banks of issue hold $241,200,000 gold, a slight increase compared with last year, and only $27,200,000 silver. The Bank of Belgium's figures are almost stationary, but the Netherlands Bank shows for its size a relatively heavy decrease of $4,856,175 gold, to $15,736,325, while its silver is also down $3,800,000, to $11,238,550. The accounts for the first half of the Amsterdam rate of discount, which was 3 per cent last year, is now 2 per cent, which is also the Italian figure. The French rate remains at 3 per cent while the German and Austrian rates are now 4 per cent and the Russian and Spanish 4 1/2 per cent.

COMPARE STOCKS.

English advocates of protection and a strong argument in their favor in comparing the prices of government stocks in the various European countries. While the trade England's consols have declined in value since June last year from $4.25 to $2.48 and free trade Holland's 3 per cent bonds from $2.37 to $2.27 the 3 per cent government stock of protected Germany has only declined from $5.40 to $4.75, and the 3 per cent French rentes have gone up from $7.40 to $8.22. Austria's 4 per cent bonds stand at $4.12, Austria enjoys still better ground, since her 4 per cent gold rentes now stand at $16.50. Italy's credit is also fractionally better, her 3 1/2 per cent stock standing at $14.50, while Spanish is continue to reflect the financial rehabilitation of the country since the war with America by their price, 94, although last year's figure was as high as 97.50.

Judge Turns Auto Speeding Case Into Wedding Ceremony

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Justice John Royer of Evanston turned a "speeding" case into a wedding ceremony yesterday. Clarence Stone, 35 years old, and Miss Clara Ecken, 20 years old, both of Denver, arrived in Chicago in the morning and obtained a license at the county clerk's office. When they were overhauled by a policeman and summoned to court for violation of the speed ordinance, despite the protestations of the couple.

"We were trying to elude people who are pursuing us," said Stone to Justice Royer. "Does anybody object to your getting married?" asked the justice. "Yes, her parents do, but she is of age," said the bridegroom. "Well, come up to the desk here and I will perform the ceremony," said Justice Royer.

GREAT IRRIGATION DAM COMPLETED

Bellefourche System Is Almost Ready for Opening; One of Largest.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The earth work on the big Bellefourche irrigation dam in South Dakota, which is one of the largest earth embankments in the world, practically has been completed, according to advices received here by the reclamation service.

The dam is 6200 feet long with a maximum height of 115 feet and contains 40,200,000 cubic feet of earth.

This structure closes the outlet to a natural basin and an inlet canal six and one-half miles long and forty feet wide at the bottom carries the water of the Bellefourche river into the reservoir thus formed.

When the distribution system of the Bellefourche project is completed, 600 miles of canals and laterals will carry the water over 100,000 acres of land. About 40,000 acres already are receiving water.

PLANS OUTLINED FOR CLUB'S WORK

Peralta - Claremont Improvement Association Hears the Reports of Committees.

At a meeting of the Peralta-Claremont Improvement Club held last night at the club headquarters in the Peralta school on Alcatraz avenue, reports of committees were received and plans were outlined for the fall and winter work.

It was decided to devote the next meeting, Thursday, September 1st, to a special rally of the club's members, combining business and social features, and a committee to arrange for this fall membership reunion was appointed, consisting of D. D. White, chairman, J. B. Beatty, George H. Ames and Charles G. White.

INTEREST IN REPORT.

Much interest was shown in the report of the Greater Oakland charter committee as to the progress being made by the recently-elected Board of Freeholders in framing the new city charter, and the various features already decided upon by the freeholders were the subject of earnest discussion.

The coming election for the authorization of bonds for new schools was also considered and an intention expressed to side in every way in obtaining the approval of these bonds in view of the total inadequacy of Oakland's school facilities. The consideration of the report of the committee on better fire protection was deferred until the next meeting.

The special membership rally on September first will be held in the Peralta school and will be followed by a vigorous fall and winter campaign for the improvement of conditions in the district.

A STRENUOUS TOURIST.

One of the best known American automobile tourists is Harry Benard, whose long, strenuous trips in his little twenty horse-power Ford are noted among the sensations of motor car achievements. Benard has three times made the round trip from San Francisco to Chicago, and in addition has toured every corner, valley and mountain of California and Nevada. All this service has been given by one Ford car, which Benard declares is still good for many another hard tour.

SOME SHARK.

According to records which were thoroughly searched by the naval cadets of the Mexican coast guard, now anchored in the harbor, the monster shark which was caught by the crew of that vessel while on route to Pensacola is the largest that has ever been hooked and recorded. The shark measured ten meters (about thirty feet) in length and weighed from the growth on his body had lived many, probably hundreds of years and had likely visited every sea in the world. The largest found to be on record measured nine meters long and was caught on the coast of California several years ago. The cadets are proud of holding the distinction of having captured the largest shark on record.—Pensacola Journal.
